DIRECTS IMMIGRATION.

ponted as director of European emi-

Arthur Meighen to prove depression gration for Canada in London.

tion in the maritimes.

J Bruce Walker, who has been ap-

Liberals Gather at Border To Support Sloggett and Rutherford.

McCOIG CAMPAIGNS Kent Senator Prominent Speaker at Joint Meeting of Electors.

Special to The Advertiser by a Staff Reporter. Clachan, Sept. 25 .- The banner of Liberalism was unfolded here tonight, when rousing campaign speeches marked the opening of contest for the election of Mayor George Sloggett as parliamentary member for Elgin and Dr. James Rutherford member for Kent.

Electors from the two gathered in the community hall here, men and women alike showing interest and enthusiasm in the campaign, the cause and the candidates. ator Archie McCoig of Chatham was the chief speaker, and other ad-dresses of note were given an attentive hearing.

Kent's intensive campaign to place
Dr. Rutherford in the Commons to succeed such representatives as Senator McCoig and the Hon. James Murdock commenced at the easterly limit of the riding. Eligin's battle started at the western border. Senator McCoig promises to keep his sleeves rolled up until Oct. 29, working for both candidates, and he will appear shortly in St. Thomas and Port Stanley. Kent's intensive campaign to place which he had talked about in Chat-him? What members of the old Borden cabinet were standing by the prince of pessimism? Well, there was Bob Rogers, notorious Manitoba Port Stanley.

Kent, with substantial majorities Kent, with substantial majorities for Liberal candidates for some years past, promises Liberal representation again. And in Elgin prospects are no less favorable with a strong Liberal candidate in the field in the person of Mayor G. H. Sloggett of St. Thomas, an outstanding labor man and a strong Liberal. ing labor man and a strong Liberal. Mr. Sloggett was unable to be present tonight, but his supporters present tonight, but his supporters gave him a creditable record.

Robert E. Kerr, Liberal campaign chairman for Orford, presided. Ex-Mayor E. A. Horton, of St. Thomas, and Albert Roberts, chairman of the St. Thomas hoard of water commisand Albert Roberts, chairman of the St. Thomas board of water commissioners, spoke on behalf of Mayor Sloggett. James McLean, chairman for Rodney, was another Elgin speaker. Senator McCoig came in with Dr. Rutherford, and both gave able

" of Arthur Meighen were by Senator McColg in a fighting speech. He deprecated the campaign utterances of the Conservative leader, and showed clearly by convincing and showed clearly by convincing that statements that conditions in Chatham, in Sarnia, and elsewhere in the Canada, are much better than the Canada, are make out.

Men like Paish, Filene, Leverhuines, Ford, all realized that a business man's neighbors know him—if anymone and that is what counts. A Thomas, and that is what counts Canada, are much better than the one does, and we all believe in Mayor Sloggett."

Mayor Sloggett."

Mayor Sloggett."

Mr. McCoig issued a challenge to Mr. Horton deprecated the move to persistent attempt would wreck the raise the tariff. He declared such a fruits of confederation. Immigration and railways formed the real key problems of the country. Coming fresh from organization work in Kent. Dr. J. W. Rutherford, Liberal standard-bearer in that riding, declared he had every expectation of the King administration's return. Kent county would come first, Dr. Kent county would come first, Dr. Rutherford declared, and he would not pledge blind faith to the Liberal Tariff For Revenue.

"Tariff for revenue," is Dr. Rutherford's view of customs duties. He believes in going down the center of the road, offering the farmer as much road, oldering the farmer as much protection as the manufacturer.

The candidate produced a letter from a prominent Detroit manufacturer, stating that decision had been turer, stating that decision had been made not to open a Canadian branch at Chatham, because of press report at Chatham, because of press report conditions in this country.

Such reports were caused largely by Arthur Meighen and his supporters, talking disparagingly of Canada, simply for campaign propaganda. As a matter of fact industry has improved greatly in Canada. The Canadian dollar is above par at New York. Statements credited to the Belfast chamber of commerce indicated fast chamber of commerce indicated the dominion to be the richest country in the world, per capita, stood fourth in the world in matter of exoorts, shipping a quarter as much produce as the United States. "Give Mackenzie King another four or five years and you'll see prosperity double what it is now—maybe triple."

maybe triple." Seeks Farm Settlers. In the matter of immigration, Dr. Rutherford seeks farmer settlers, people who will come to build homes to stay. Population for the farming districts is needed; industrial and business expansion will follow. business expansion will follow.

The dominion had been saddled with the National Railways, roads that had not paid dividends, were operating at losses and for which millions were paid. Leave Sir Henry Thornton alone, advocated Dr. Ruth-Thornton alone, advocated Dr. Ruth-erford, and the national roads would

The viewpoint of the labor man and the agrarian was expounded by and the agrarian was expounded by Albert Roberts, chairman of the St. Thomas water commission. Mr. Roberts is a man of independent views, but he is offering strong support to Mayor Sloggett in the Elgin campaign, whom he believes can best represent the people of the constituency. politician, the single member of the old Borden cabinet to support Meighen in the present campaign.
Then there was Dewitt Foster, of war-horse fame, contesting the elec-Just how game was the Conserva-ive candidate in Kent? Just so much hat Senator McCoig had little to that Senator McCoig had little to say about him, nothing in a complimentary way. He did offer some noteworthy comment on third party representation which Kent has enjoyed.

Confidence in Sloggett.

"If we wanted advice on an engineering matter we would go to an engineer, someone who knew more about the thing than I do. So, if we wanted advice on business and the tariff, the last man we would go to would be a politician."

Sir Georg e Paish. "If we wanted advice on an engi-

Confidence in Mayor George Sloggett, Liberal candidate in Eigin, was youched for by E. A. Horton former ternational barriers.

for Rodney, was another Libert Senator McCoig came in with er. Senator McCoig came in with Dr. Rutherford, and both gave able addresses on political conditions. At the called the election one for the people, in which election one for the people election one fo "He is a labor man, an engineer on has been covered and merchants and "He is a labor man, an engineer on the Michigan Central Railway. That is nothing against him. He holds the confidence of the people of St. Thomas, and that is what counts. A Thomas are the countries of the countries of

The story of two brothers who lived on

Ex-Premier of Nova Scotia Becomes Secretary of State.

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, Sept. 25.-Hon. A. B Copp, secretary of state, has resigned his portfolio in the government, and his resignation has been accepted. Mr. Copp was today appointed to the senate to fill the vacancy existing in New Brunswick. Hon. Walter Foster, former premier of the province of New Brunswick, has been appointed secretary of state in succes sion to Mr. Copp.

Official announcement to this effect was made this evening by Premier W. L. Mackenzie King. The prime minister stated that, following a meeting of the cabinet council today, Mr. Copp's resignation had been accepted and the appointment menaccepted and the appointment men-tioned approved by the governor-general. While Hon. Walter Foster wil take over the portfolio of secretary of state, it was stated that a rear-rangement of portfolios in the cabinet is contemplated after the elections. should the government be returned t

Hon. Mr. Copp sat for the constituency of Westmoreland, N.B., in the last parliament, which riding he has perpendign in the house of comhas represented in the house of com-mons since 1915.

Premier King declared that no appointment had as yet been made to the Manitoba vacancy in the scnate, caused by the death of the late Sen-ator George Bradbury of Selkirk. Man. It was further intimated that announcement of the personnel of the new tariff advisory board would not likely be forthcoming until after the KING LEAVES FOR WEST. Indications Point To Triumphal Tour As Prairies Swing To Liberal Side.

Special to The Advertiser by E. C. BUCHANAN.

Ottawa, Sept. 25 .- Right Hon, Mackenzie King leaves tonight for what, in the opinion of political observers, will prove a triumphal tour of the west. Reports which the govern-ment has been receiving from the prairies indicate a steady improve-

Before starting for the west, Premier King further strengthened his cabinet by taking in former Premier Foster of New Brunswick in the place of Hon. A. C. Copp, secretary of state, who resigned. Mr. Copp has been given the remaining N. B. vacancy in the senate.

The cabinet was in session all afternoon and evening. A number of items of business were disposed of the starting for the west, in will divide the income. The intum to the Royal Trust Company to administer as it the estate is left in trust to the Royal Trust Company to administer as it the estate is left in trust to the Royal Trust Company to administer as it the estate is left in trust to the Royal Trust Company to administer as it the estate is left in trust to the Royal Trust Company to administer as it the estate is left in trust to the Royal Trust Company to administer as it the estate is left in trust to the Royal Trust Company to administer as it the estate is left in trust to the Royal Trust Company to administer as it the estate is left in trust to the Royal Trust Company to administer as it the estate is left in trust to the Royal Trust Company to administer as it the estate is left in trust to the Royal Trust Company to administer as it the estate is left in trust to the Roya items of business were disposed of and the election situation discussed It was decided, in agreement with Australia, that the Australian trade treaty should be effective Oct. Those who returned with the premier from the maritimes state that Conservative expectations that section of the country are in the way of being seriously disappointed. The Conservatives have been confidently counting on Nova Scotia and New Brunswick going the same way in the federal elections as they went in recent provincial elections. In Vova Scotia, however, it is reported that a marked reaction has set in, partly due to dissatisfaction with the Rhodes attempt to settle the mining trouble. The government, it is said, is likely to carry the majority of the Nova Scotia seats. It probably will hald Prince Edward Lelend and lose hold Prince Edward Island and lose some in New Brunswick.

In Manitoba a strong Liberal swing is under way, and it will be surpris-ing if the government does not win in the big majority of the 17 seats. To lesser extent only the same movement is in progress in Saskatchewan and Alberta.
In Quebec, Patenaude is not proving the force he was reported to be.

One opinion of reliable Montreal origin today was that the Conservatives would not gain more than three seats in Montreal. They have peen figuring on sweeping the city.

and thereby made nations there purchase more commodities, and the raising of the tariff had proven purchase more considerable market for an eventual reciprocity treaty. He characterized the United States is heading for mass production and standardization in everything. Standardization, with tariff, would head to diminished purchasing power, Arthur Meighen knew that when he preached high tariff. Confidence was the very thing on which business was built—it was worth more than gold. Pessimism was worse than the Fingal wolf.

Mr. Roberts hoped even for an eventual reciprocity treaty. He characterized the United States as a money-lending nation. It would have to be an exporting, a trading nation, to succeed. Canada needed the United States for a market. Lloyd George's "back-to-the-land" scheme would cut off considerable market for the wheat of the dominion.

George's back-towould cut off considerable market for the wheat of the dominion.
"We cannot think straight today if we surround ourselves with a narrow shell. I've tried to get a little line on economics. My sympathies are with the ideals of the labor movement but I can't agree with labor's program. During the last 25 years the labor movement has been bled of all its best leaders, and of the two paths left open to me I cannot follow the party of pessimism."

MANY APPEALS HEARD BY COURT OF REVISION

Court of revision sat Thursday at the city hall and received a large number of appeals against assessment. The majority of assessments criticized were confirmed by the

In several business assessments In several business assessments reductions were made because improvement had been put on buildings in order to rent them. One exemption from taxation was allowed on grounds of charity.

Newly-married couples had income assessment struck off when their assessment struck off when their present status was made known.

MAN HURT IN FALL.

Clinton, Sept. 25.—While repairing his barn recently, Napoleon Le Beau, of the London road, fell 25 feet to the ground, sustaining a fractured leg. He was removed to the Stratford Hospital, where he is reported to be progressing favorably.

OPEN LIBERAL CAMPAIGN IN ELGIN AND KENT.

Liberals of the federal ridings of Kent and Elgin met at the border village of Clachan last night and attested staunch support for Mayor George H. Sloggett (at left), Liberal, mayor of St. Thomas, and Liberal nominee in Elgin, and for Dr. J. W. Rutherford, their candidate in Kent. Both candidates are out on low tariff planks, and they are winning much support from

Bequests To Londoners Shown In Probated Will

Minor Legacies to Employees.

ESTATE OVER $500,000

Probate of Sir Adam Beck's will, entered at the court house yesterday shows that his daughter. Mrs. Marian Hay, Toronto, receives outight a payment of $5,000, one month after her father's death, household goods, etc., to a value of $17,400, and the income from $539,076, the residue of the estate, which is being held in

Old Robe Gets Court Censure

Special to The Advertiser.
Chatham, Sept. 25.—The grandjury of the fall assizes has recommended important repairs recommended important repairs and decorations in the courthouse and county jail. Mr. Justice Mowat commented upon the dilapidated gown worn by the court crier. Sheriff E. W. Hardy proposed to place these matters before the county authorities at one garly date. an early date.

trust by the Royal Trust Company, Toronto.

The will, made July 14, last, but one month before the death of Sir Adam, further states that should Mrs. Hay die without leaving any children, half the income from the residue goes to J. F. Beck, a brother, and at his death his half goes equally to his daughters, Miss Louise and Miss Helen Beck. Their children in turn will divide the income. The income from the other half of the residue goes to J. F. Beck, a brother, and at his death his half goes equally to his daughters, Miss Louise and Miss Helen Beck. Their children in turn will divide the income. The income from the other half of the residue goes to J. F. Beck, a brother, and at his death his half goes equally to his daughters, Miss Louise and Miss Helen Beck. Their children in turn will divide the income. The income from the other half of the residue goes to J. F. Beck, a brother, and at his death his half goes equally to his daughters, Miss Louise and Miss Helen Beck. Their children in turn will divide the income. The income from the other half of the residue goes to J. F. Beck, a brother, and at his death his half goes equally to his daughters, Miss Louise and Miss Helen Beck. Their children in turn will divide the income. The income from the other half of the residue goes to J. F. Beck, a brother, and at his death his half goes equally to his daughters, Miss Louise and Miss Helen Beck. Their children in turn will divide the income. The income from the other half of the residue goes to J. F. Beck, a brother, and the beck of the form of th

BARNUM MAY GET ST. THOMAS PLUM

Report Crown Attorney Mc-Crimmon To Retire-Aylmer Man For Post.

Incidental to yesterday's Western Ontario conclave in London is the to reward the party services of one of the staunchest of his Western Ontario lieutenants, W. Harold Barnum, K.C., of Aylmer.

According to this report, which is credited in well-informed circles, Crown Attorney McCrimmon of St. Thomas is soon to retire, and the post is to be taken by Mr. Barnum. The Aylmer barrister is one leaders in his profession in Elgin county, and this efficiency, buttressed his record in organization work and general electioneering, has placed him well in front of all contenders. rother, J. F. Beck, valued at $3,400 brother, J. F. Beck, valued at $3,400. Helen Beck, a niece, received $800 for educational purposes, while the nurses' home, Byron sanatorium, re-ceived donations totalling $28,000 from 1918-1920. Other donations, listed as "sundry donations to char-from 1918-1920. Other donations, listed as "sundry donations to charity," amounted to $29,800.

Sir Adams's personal estate was $550,676.48, and real estate, $77,309. Headley, his home on Richmond street, was valued at $75,000; lots on Wellington street, $2,100, and property in Quebec, at $200. Mrs. Hay receives household goods, of $9,000; harness, bridle and stable equipment. $700, and horses, valued at $4,400.

harness, bridle and stable equipment, $700, and horses, valued at $4,400.

Little Life Insurance.

Sir Adam had but $5,000 life insurance. He owned bank and other stocks worth $472,843; securities for money, $54,128; cash on hand at time of death, $700; cash in bank, $2,304. His motor cars were valued at $4,000. of death, $700; cash in bank, $2,304. His motor cars were valued at $4,000. Stock in the Beck Manufacturing Company, of which he was the head. constituted the bulk of Sir Adam's wealth. He owned 3,830 shares in the company, which are valued at $383,000. He had 1,092 shares, with a par value of $100, in the London Rolling Mills. The estate value is set at $81,900. He had also 50 shares in the London & Western Trusts Company, don & Western Trusts Company, which the executor of the estate Sir Adam also held stock in the York Downs Golf and Country club, Toronto; the London Arena Company, values at $6,500. Limited; International Horse show London Tennis club, London Hunt and Country club, London Curling club, and the Tecumseh Baseball and SOCIOLOGY AND SOCIAL SERVICE, 1925-26.

A course of thirty lectures in the elements of sociology including field work and the study of social institutions, will be given at the rate of one a week at the Institute of Public Health University of Western Ontario, Ottaway and Waterloo, from 4 to 5 p.m.. Mondays, beginning Sept. 28, 1925.

In order to provide for clergymen, nurses, teachers, social workers and interested students who may join the class a special fee of $5 will be made. Applications should be filed at once. Telephone 3960 or write to the Dean of Public Health University of Western Ontario.

EXCLUSION OF M. P.

Head of Organization Condemns Communism, But Objects To Kellogg's Attitude.

Associated Press Despatch New York, Sept. 25 .- Efforts are be made to have the inter-pariamentary union, convening in Washington Monday, protest against, the exclusion from the country of Shapurji Saklatvala, British communist member of parliament, who was to have been a delegate. The new leader of the socialist or anization says the question will be brought before the union by Rennie Smith, another British member parliament, and by at least one oth leading delegate.

IT'S SURE! IT'S PURE! STRONG'S Baking Powder In use for over half a century. 50c Pound. STRONG'S DRUG STORE 184 DUNDAS STREET.

Distributed by LONDON CONFECTION CO.,
218 Horton Street.

Assure Yourself of Better Profits
Let Us Buy Your Eggsand Poultry C. A. MANN & CO. KING ST.

"Behind the Growth of Every Large City Lies the Vision of Far-Sighted Men"

TO ALL CITIZENS:

Citizens have expressed their desire that a new hotel should be built in London. This shows a laudable spirit of loyalty to London -a spirit that will provide a successful solution to every community need.

It will be impossible for members of the Hotel Financial Campaign Committee to call on all citizens who will want to contribute finances toward the fund representing London's amount.

The Committee in charge, therefore, extend through The London Advertiser a cordial invitation to all Citizens to Subscribe to this public fund such amounts as they may desire to invest in a community undertaking that will pay dividends to the city as well as to the individual investor.

The filling in of the following form and forwarding it to the address given below will be acceptable and given immediate attention.

The Hotel Financial Campaign Committee

THE HOTEL FINANCIAL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE, 451 RICHMOND STREET, LONDON. I am interested in the new hotel project as a community and in-dividual investment and would appreciate an interview with a member of the Committee regarding it.

