Dear Sir.

Your last issue contains, a letter for Nr. F. Blois, Mayor of New Carlisle, dealing with matters arising out of their late councillor election Mr. Blois and I are good friends, but I don't think we agree in views as to licensing the sale of liquors in New Carlisle. I think it unwise and wrong, and he does not seem to be sure in the matter, he awaits the decision of the people. He writes as if he did not belong to the Temperance party. What party does he company with? A man can hardly be considered intelligent in civic alfairs, much less fit to be a mayor of council, who has no pointon in this matter. It is not a new issue, and only grossest stupid ity would deny the importance of it.
