An Extraordinary Subject!

To be the sole survivor of 500,000 Christians sacrificed in the months which followed a fateful day in 1915, is the experience of Aurora Mardiganian, the leading character in "AUCTION OF SOULS."

This most astounding presentation of facts was produced by Col. W. H. Selig for the National Motion Picture Committee of the American Commission for Relief in the Near East and

THE PICTURED TRUE STORY OR THE SOLE SURVIVOR OF HALF A MILLION ARMENIAN GIRLS.

Aurora Mardiganian

HERSELF

She is the Armenian beauty who escaped to America after two years of unspeakable adventures in the hands of Kurdish Raiders, Slave Markets and Turkish Harems. Although the newspapers have given her story pages of space, the National Committee chose the screen as the most vivid medium of bringing home to the American people what their Christian sisters endured in ravished Armenia. The resultant screen epic
