MONDAY MORNING, JAN. 5, 1885. The Mayoralty.

The interests of the conservative party are not at stake in the vote of to-day. Nor are the promoters and managers the Industrial exhibition on trial.

The issue is a straight one of good civic government, independent of party, independent of the exhibition. And, therefore, we urge upon voters the necessity there is on each of them of casting his ballot for that candidate who, as mayor or alderman, will give us the best possible city government. compels its abandonment.

As to the mayoralty, The World is of opinion that Mr. Withrow is the candidate who can and will do the city most good. He is, we are confident, supported by the best men, by the respectable taxpayers, by these anxious to keep ringsters and jobbers out of municipal administration, and by those who yete for the city's welfare and not in response to dictates of party managers. Mr. Manning will be beaten, as we have said before, by reason of the men who are supporting him.

An Old Trick

The minor Riordon organ came out on the mills has ruled at about 4 cents per Saturday night with some very vague gallon. A fact worthy of being noted is charges against the Industrial exhibition management, the plain object being to damage Mr. Withrow in the vote of to-day. No date, no facts, no names were givensimply the statement, that the city had in some way John J. Withrow was con-nected therewith. This is an old trick side it with the least trouble.
