The World as a Newspaper. The World is leading all the papers in Can-ada in the matter of news and enterprise. Day after day do these columns contain im-Day after day do these contains contain an portant news, not found in our contemporaries. Take the case of the unfortunate Mr. Herch-mer. Monday's World was the only paper in Canada to give a full account of the finding of Canade to give a full account of the finding of the body at Andalusia, and by reason of the paper in yesterday's issue was the first to iden-tify the man and by despatches sent from this office early Tuesday morning to the Philadel-phia Times to solve what was a mystery to the people of that great city. While our able contemporaries were yesterday telling, that there was a mystery The World was in the hands of thousands of its readers explaining

there was a mystery The World was in the hands of thousands of its readers explaining the mystery away. In its pursuit of a policy the Mail has run athwart Sir Henter Lancevin whom it has ath wart. Sir Hecter Langevin, whom it has found cold and rather repellant. He is to be set aside for the honor and glory of the Hon. Nor Chapleau. In saving this the Mail is Mr. Chapleau. In saying this the Mail is echoing the Globe, which has for long been eugaged in a determined attempt to write Sir Hector down upon the plea that his section of Quebec was carried by the Rielite cry. It is dishonorable for any English-written journal to write down a French Canadian upon that to write down a French Canadian upon that ground, but it is doubly dishonorable for the Mail to join in the Globe's hue and cry after one of the most industrious and efficient ties. The people of Western Ontario-partic-ularly the people of Huron county-know Mr. Greenway better than they do Mr. Norquay. one of the most industrious and efficient cabinet ministers that ever served Canada, and whose only alleged fault is that he risked his political future to maintain law and order against the passions of his misguided com-patriots. The Globe has always been Sir and those who know the former will agree in the opinion that he who enters into a coalition with him will need a long spoon. In this proago the Mail was his ardent friend. Yester-day the latter paper attempted to trip him up. When the Mail is reduced so low as to echo the mouthings of the Rieliter and their

Apropos of Mr. Mercier's proposed raid pon the federal treasury, the Globe has the mon the freshing frigidity to say: "The people of Quebec and the Maritime Provinces have been taught for years to regard the people of On-tario as their enemies. It is time that they were undeceived." And who were their teachers, pray? Up to the day that Sir John were undeceived." And who were their teachers, pray? Up to the day that Sir John A. As matters stand now they may never meet in the ring to do hattle for the light weight fistic championship of the world. . The Brooklyn pug says he won't fight under the articles he has already signed, while the Englishman claims the bolt. Jack McAuliffe declares that no match had been made, notwithstanding the articles of agreement are signed and in the hands of the Police News. McAuliffe's backers have never covered the $50 posted by Paissy Sheppard for Carney, and now Jack says that they do not intend to, but find if anything is done a new mitch will be made, for which John L. Sullivan and "Pat" Sheedy will draw up the articles of agreement. The trouble is about the Holske beit the men were to fight for, which must be won three times by any fighter before it be-comes his property. McAuliffe has won it twice, and as Carney was the first to challenge him after this second victory he must defend his claim to it by meeting Garney. The Englishman says: "According to the viction the to accept all challenges and fight within three months after signing articles. McAuliffe failed to accept within a month, so the forfeited his claim to the trouble. I waived my columns to enter a formal claim for the Holske beit, and when delivered to me i shall deposit $1000 bonds with the donor as a guarantee to pounds." We are glad to know that associations have been formed both in England and the United States for the simplification of funcerals and the rich poole who could well alford the ex-pense are setting the example of simplicity in these matters. We wish to warn Catholies against this abuse of extravagance in funcerals. If friends wish to show their respectfor the departed let them do so by at least themselves paying for the car-riage that conveys them to the concert. The simple part is all she allows on the coffin at the funceral of those who have reached the age of reason. The simple part is all she allows on the coffin at the funceral of those who have reached the age of reason. The other abuse of which we would speak is something altograher contrary to the surit of Christianity. It is the enormity of turning the great day of grief and mourning, the anniver-sary of the death of Christ, into a day of pleas-ure and amusement, n day of theeares and horse reasing and prize shooting. Our Lord has and that when the spouse is taken from them they shall fast. It is the universid custom that the anniversaries of death are days of silence and mourning. Her Migesty the Queen of England sets, in this respect, as far as she can, a good example by having religions services on the anniversary of her husband's death, and by sumhoning on these occasions all her children and clailves. She does not give balls or par-ties of grand receptions on such anniversaries. Her illustrious example is a reproach to those who would outrage in this respect he
