Mr. Warring Kennedy was yesterday elected Mayor of Toronto by a majority of 4416, with one sub-division to hear from, which will increase the total.

The aggregate polled was 22,862, which exceeds that of last year, the largest ever previously polled, by 2508.

Mr. Kennedy obtained 13,639 votes and Mr. Fleming 9223. Last year Fleming obtained 11,736, so that his total vote this year fell short by 2513. Mr. Sheppard obtained last year 8618, which was 5021 less than Mr. Kennedy obtained yesterday. Fleming's total vote was only 605 in excess of the number polled by Mr. Sheppard last

Although so heavy a vote was polled, the election passed off quietly. At the various sub-divisions the returning officers had a paratively easy time of it, the vote being fairly well distributed. Here are the figures: Kennedy. Fleming.

He was glad that for 1894 we would have a broad, liberal-minded man, one who was no mere petty municipal politician, but one who had interests and business commenctions as wide as the Dominion. Moreover, Mr. Kennedy's life was an open book in whose pure pages those who would might read. The speaker had never said that Mayor Fleming was not a temperance man, for he believed he was. Whathe did say was, thathe detested his tryingto trim his sails to catch the liquor vote. Then, with an outburst of enthusiasm, Mr. McKendry said he was as proud as if he were Mr. Kennedy's own son. He then predicted municipal serior and reduction of taxes for the present year.

Mr. W. R. Elliott who had the honor of nominating Mr. Kennedy, felt his head ever the wrongfully swith pride in the city. He knew was to fall would he forget the ladies. past couple of weeks it was to be expected that a hot contest would be the result, and such was the case.

The Ratepayers Association, as intimated in The World they should be, were victorious, electing all their members, which gives an entire new council for 1894. When the returns began to arrive the Eglinton Town Hall would not begin to hold the crowd that gathered, and many were unable to gain admittance.

Mr. Lucas is to be congratulated on the vote he polled, being not only the largest of any of the candidates, but the largest ever polled by any candidate for a municipal office in York Township.

After the returns were all in there were speeches by the candidates. Mr. Hill was load for a live for the return of the candidates. speeches by the candidates. Mr. Hill was loudly called for. Upon coming forward he said that it was the proudest moment of his life to be elected to the high position of Reeve of York. Although a resident of Toronto, yet he said he would never be unmindful of their interests. He would devote his time to the township of York and not to Toronto. After serving six years in the City Council never township of York and not to Infonto. After serving six years in the City Council never a single charge of any wrong-doing could be brought against him. Mr. Humberstone had endeavored to bring up three charges against him, but he denied all of them, and said, at any rate, the time Mr. Humberstone referred to was before he ever became an alderman. After thanking the ratepayers for the splendid vote accorded him he wished them all a happy New Year.
