BUFFALO RACING DOOMED.

BARRELL A CORPORAL'S GUARD ON THE TRACK.

Grand Circuit Trotting Without Pools Is No Attraction—C. J. Hamlin on the Anti-Betting Law—He Proposes to Sell All His Horses and Abandon the Breeding Industry.

Buffalo, Aug. 13.—Hardly a corporal's guard attended the Grand Circuit trotting race at Buffalo track today, and much less than $500 in paid admissions was taken at the gate.

The progress of the meeting thus far has conclusively demonstrated that a stilet of the provisions of the anti-betting law will surely kill harness racing in this law of the state, at least. C. J. Hamlin, who is a woe-begone expression of his consternation at the veiled almost deserted grand stand and betting ring to-day.

"To-day" he remarked to a representative of the United Press. "But if this happens on, I will sell all my horses, dispose of the Driving Park, and retire from the breeding industry. I blame the city officials for much of this, for down in the claus of the state the laws are liberally construed, and betting is permitted, but here if one only had a five-cent piece to another he is locked up in jail. Under the anti-betting measures are repealed, I feel that there will positively be no Grand Circuit meeting in Buffalo next year; it is certain."

The meeting will positively be continued to its end to-morrow, as an attraction, Azote and Fantasy will get two heats in three. Thursday Corbett and his bag punting will be the feature, and Friday Lanky Bob Fitzsimmons will give an exhibition. Summaries:
