

of the knees was shattered almost to splinters four of the studs were knocked out of place and destroyed—every pane of glass was broken in three of the windows—boards and shingles were removed, and it will be at considerable expense that the damage can be repaired.

A Fire broke out at Chatham on Monday last, which destroyed the stable, barn and waggon shed of Mr Sherwood Peck, together with their contents, including a valuable horse.

The inhabitants of Miramichi, presented an Address on the 23rd ult. to the late Collector of Customs, John Wright, Esq. expressing their regret, that after a service of 31 years as Collector of that port, it had been deemed advisable in carrying out the views of Government, regarding trade and navigation, to abolish the important office he so long held. To which Mr. Wright made a suitable reply.

Launched at the Ledge on the 31st ult. a splendid new ship of 525 tons, called the "ALAN POTTER," after a highly respectable merchant of that name in the India trade out of Liverpool, a trade for which we understand this fine Vessel is intended. Mr. Owen Hinds, the builder of this Ship, has long been favourably known as a first rate naval architect, and in this instance he has well sustained his reputation, for a handsomer or better Vessel, we are told by competent judges, does not sail out of the Province. With the exception of the naval timbers and flooring, she is altogether composed of the finest growths of hickmate—is copper fastened, and was coppered on the Stocks. She is owned by our enterprising neighbours Messrs James Porter & Co., of St. Stephen.—Charlotte Gazette.
