WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18th, 1903.

The Nova Scotia Tourist Association, which was organized a few years ago in the city of Halifax, has in no small degree been instrumental in bringing the attractions of the province as a summer resort before the people of the United States and Canada.

The following provincial appointments have been gazetted: To be Stipendiary Magistrates—Geo. T. Tupper, of Bevier; Harry L. Dennison, of Digby.

The contract for the remodeling of the A. R. station at Kentville has been awarded to Rhodes, Curry & Co., Amherst. Work will be commenced at once.

Correspondence to the Monitor from Lower Granville last week was carried past Bridgetown and returned too late for publication. This is not an uncommon instance.

The Council of Public Instruction have appointed a commission of teachers in the province to select and compile a new series of readers for use in the schools.

Digby firms have imported 60,000 lbs. of fresh haddock from Boston and Gloucester this season, and smoked them for sale as fancy haddock in the Canadian markets.

The rate of taxation in the town of Digby for 1903, is 15 cents on the $100 less than it was in 1902, and in 1902 it was 10 cents less than the preceding year.

Mr. S. Nelson has been in St. John for the past six weeks or more, and has introduced Emory Linn into the home of one thousand families during that time.

Mr. Arnold McKenzie returned on Saturday from his trip to Winnipeg in the interests of the Larrigan Co. Mr. McKenzie enjoyed the trip and the order booked far surpassed his expectations.

Local and Special News.

Mr. L. C. Berry has purchased Mr. Thompson's property on Granville street.

A meeting of the County Liberal Association was held in the Court House yesterday.

It is rumored that Mr. P. B. Wade, M. P., is in ill health, and that he is contemplating a European trip.

A barn on the Robert Willett farm at Belleisle, owned by Messrs. Spurr and Anderson and which was full of hay, was burned on Monday night.

Our Miss Annie K. Sutherland will open the Spring season on March 27th, with all the latest styles from the fashionable openings. B. Haver & Co.

B. Haver & Co. are opening new Spring Goods every day, in Muslins, Prints, Ginghams and Millinery, and a fine assortment of Room Paper very low.

LENT.

Again our Lent has come to us, the seed-time of the year.

And we must be and early toil, that ere the Lent appear,

That every Fruit and every Flower the Gardener may sow.

The time is short, Oh, labour all, with last and prayer and tear,

Because once more our Lent's come, the seed-time of the year.

Cold are the winds of Nature now, and O, the blasts are keen,

The searching blasts of deep remorse for what our sins have been.

Soft are the showers that from Heaven fall gently down on Thee,

O, Jesus, to our cold hearts may penetrate be given.

That we may sow unto Thee with many a secret tear,
