

◇ CONSTITUTION ◇

OF THE

LADIES' AUXILIARY

TO THE

LONDON Y. M. C. A.

ARTICLE I.

The name of this Society shall be the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian Association of London, Ontario; and its object shall be to aid said Association in the prosecution of its work.

ARTICLE II.

Sec. 1.—The active membership of the Association shall consist of ladies who are attendants of some Evangelical Church, and have been elected by a two-thirds vote of the members present at the regular meeting following that at which their names have been proposed.

Sec. 2.—Any lady of good moral character may become a member by a majority vote of the members present at the regular meeting follow.