

repress their envy and cordially and freely unite with their brethren of the Grand Lodge of Canada.—The "Canadian Pioneer," for January publishes the memorial entire. We make the following extracts from the intelligent editor's remark on the subject:

Here follows, a portion of our remarks on this subject, published in our issue of January last.—Mirror and Keystone.

There are only three ways of getting out of a scrape—write out, back out, but the best way is to keep out.

Have you enemies? Go straight on, and mind them not. If they block up your path, walk around them; do your duty regardless of their spite. A man who has no enemies, is seldom good for anything he is made of that kind of material which so easily worked that every one has a hand in it. A sterling character—one who thinks for himself, and speaks what he thinks, is always sure to have enemies. They are necessary to him as fresh air; they keep him alive and active. A celebrated character, who was surrounded with enemies, used to remark:—"They are sparks, which, if you do not blow, will go out themselves." Let this be your feeling while endeavouring to live down the scandal of those who are bitter against you. If you stop to dispute, you do but as they desire, and open the way for more abuse. Let the poor fellows talk; there will be re-action if you but perform your duty, those who were once alienated from you will flock to you, and acknowledge their error.
