

C. A. Sweet, of Buffalo N. Y., advising caution in the deliberations of the convention.

Mr. Pierce moved that the sections in the present scale of points be retained.

Mr. Jacobs moved to amend by providing that in all sections where "breast and body" are included in the same section, that the same be separated into separate sections; which motion was seconded by Dr. Robinson, and accepted by Mr. Pierce.

The motion as amended was adopted.

Mr. I. K. Felch moved to amend the original motion by providing that the section "fluff" be added to body; which amendment, being seconded, was adopted.

The original motion as amended, that the present scale of points be adopted, with the exception of separating the section of "breast and body" and making separate sections of each, and adding "fluff" to body, was adopted.

Mr. I. K. Felch moved that the numerical value of the sections in the scale of points be the same for Asiatics and the American class.

Mr. McGrew moved to amend by providing that the committees on Asiatic and American classes retire and consult and report a scale of points for the Asiatic and American classes to conform to the sense of the Association as expressed in the previous motion which amendment was accepted by Mr. Felch;

Mr. Ficklin moved to amend by excepting Games and Game Bantams; which amendment was also accepted by Mr. Felch; and the motion as amended was adopted.

Mr. Babcock moved that color and form be subdivided in the scale of points; which motion was seconded, and adopted by the association.

At this point, a box of cigars, presented by George Raper, of Indianapolis, to be given to the handsomest member of the American Poultry Association, was unanimously voted to Mr. A. E. Felch, of Natick, Mass., who acknowledged the compliment in a next speech.

A silk hat donated by P. J. Kelleher, of Indianapolis to be presented to the most popular member of the American Poultry Association, was unanimously voted to Mr. Patrick Henry Jacobs, of Hammondtown, N. J. Mr. Jacobs acknowledged the testimonial as heaping coals of fire on his head, and promised to wear it next his heart in appreciation of the honor conferred upon him.

On motion, the convention adjourned to 7.30 p. m.

On motion of Dr. Robinson the committee of five appointed at St. Louis to revise the reports of the different committees on revision of the standard was discharged, the reports not having been presented to them in time for them to take any action thereon.

The president then called for the reports of the committees on revision of the standard.

The report of the light Bramah committee was submitted by Mr. Pierce.

On motion of Mr. Jacobs it was ordered that in all breeds cut for deficiency in weight, that two points shall be deducted for a deficit of one pound from the standard weights, and for a deficit of a fractional part of a pound in proportion.

On motion of Mr. Pierce it was ordered that "Bay in color" be added to the description of eyes of light Brahmas in both male and female.
