

Come with us. You need a Church Home

Notes.

A Good Test of revival services is the interest in the meetings after special services are over. Judged by this standard, our meetings this winter were very successful. There is a revival influence at work in every part of our services. Inquirers are constantly seeking the Lord. There is reason why this good work should not go on during the whole year. It sends upon us. God gives us just what we ask in faith. The conversion of sinners is one thing we need have no fear about being acceptable unto the Lord. That is the great object for which the Father sent Jesus into the world. For that purpose was the Church founded; and for that end she is constantly to pray. Let us humbly, but boldly, ask the Holy Spirit for a revival from January to January every year. Let us do our part to bring sinners to pass.

A Spiritual Church is what the world needs. Men have tried, mere manning to spread the Kingdom, but to fail. They have catered to the pleasure-loving element, and lowered the bars of the Church, hoping the people would come in, but to be disappointed. The people have a truer and truer idea of the Church of Jesus Christ than to believe that the Blessed Mother founded her to merely amuse the people. Their hearts hunger for something to feed the soul. They may run from place to place where good food is liberally served out, but eventually they find Bethel, where Bread of Life is given to their famished souls. More and more is it becoming established, that a Church to be successful must be spiritual.
