

against me." "Very likely," I replied; "that is exactly what Christ said would happen. Your enemies will be those of your own house; but if you obey God, you may be sure He will take care of you. One man with God is mightier than all the world against Him. You and I, in less than seventy years, will have to appear before the judgment throne. Our Lord will not ask us, 'Did you obey your bishop?' but, 'Did you obey me? did you search the Scriptures? did you preach my gospel?' Whatever difficulties and dangers there may seem to be in the way of the course which I have recommended to you, you may be sure your present course is much more difficult and dangerous."

He seemed much impressed and thanked me most cordially. Just then the cars stopped and he left the train, taking his Testament and tracts with him. I pray the good seed may find lodgment in his heart.—Am.B.S.Record.
