

The Best Christmas Present for Your Class.

"THE LESSON CALENDAR."

Every Sunday-school teacher will want to give to his or her scholars "The Lesson Calendar" for 1881. It is something entirely new, and will do much to save less in study at home. Hanging upon the wall of a scholar's room, it will be a daily reminder and help. The Lesson Calendar is in the form of a pad containing 52 leaves—one leaf for each week of the year. On each leaf stands out prominently the month, days of the week, and days of the month. There are also given the Home Reading for each day, the Memory Verses of the lesson, a few leading questions on the lesson, the Golden Text, and the Topic and Outline. The pad is placed up in a handsome cardboard background, which adds to the attractiveness of this new scholar's help. Price by mail, prepaid, 25 cents each.

Address—WM. BRIGGS, 78 and 80 King Street East Toronto.

A series of short biographies of men eminent in religious history, by writers of recognized ability. Popular in style, trustworthy, and comprehensive, and dealing with the most interesting characters and events in the story of the Christian Church. The series will condense, in entertaining form, the essential facts of the great body of religious literature, and will have special value for the large class anxious for information touching these great men, but unable, by reason of limited leisure or means, to read more elaborate works.

Speaking of the series, the Philadelphia S. S. Times, of Nov. 6, says:—"It is seldom that we are able to record a more interesting list of subjects and writers."

Speaking of the volume on Wilberforce, the Chicago Standard, of November 11, says:—"The book is remarkably well written; worthy in that respect to rank with the best of the already famous series (English Men of Letters) to which we have several times referred. We shall welcome the succeeding volumes with real delight, as will those who are at once so fortunate and so wise as to secure them as they appear."

N. Y. Observer, Nov. 4, says of Wilberforce:—"Dr. Stoughton has chosen a noble subject, which he treats with a sympathetic comprehension of its true greatness."

The Paper World for November says:—"A publishing enterprise which ought to prove a great success. The volumes, which in form are neat and compact, and sell at the very low price of 75 cents each, are designed to be popular in style, trustworthy and comprehensive in matter, and will deal with the most interesting characters and events which figure in the development of the Christian Church. The Wilberforce volume seems to have been carefully and impartially written, and it is very pleasant reading. We can cordially recommend it."

The above are but samples of a vast number of opinions of the press which it would be impossible for us to republish.
