The Rev. J. Goodwill desires to acknowledge the receipt of $200 (two hundred dollars), from Roger's Hill and Cape John congregation, in behalf of Dalhousie College Endowment Fund. The names of the contributors will be given in next number of the Record.

We observe by the papers the deaths of Drs. Hill of Glasgow, and McPherson of Aberdeen, two of the most orthodox and constructive Professors of Divinity that the Church of Scotland has possessed. The former, a few years ago, received a full length portrait of himself, as a gift of affection from his pupils, and the latter was esteemed one of the most accomplished and able speakers of the Assembly.—Quis desiderio sit pudor aut modus, &c.
