Every Clergyman

Delights in possessing a library of neatly-bound books.

It sometimes happens that very valuable books—through much handling—require rebinding, but the matter is neglected from time to time, until at length they fall to pieces.

Why
Not _____

gather together a number of such books—if you have them—and send to us to be rebound? We do the work well—we do it at a reasonable price.

If you prefer, send card of enquiry as to price, stating size of books and kind of binding required.
