Mercantile Summary.

A Coaticook manufacturer, Mr. F. J. Cross, has received an order from England for twelve thousand reaper teeth, and another order from Norway for horse-rakes.ST. JOHN has an unenviable notoriety for the ease with which persons charged with forgery get an acquittal by the courts. The last case, that of J. H. Cumberland, ends in a disagreement of the jury, who were discharged. We presume a new trial will be ordered at once.
The Campbell-Chipman cases in Halifax excite considerable attention in that city, and if a jury decides that Campbell did not endorse the note which the Dominion Bank is now suing for, the Attorney-General will be asked to enquire into the matter.CARRYING coals to Newcastle is not a more uncommon occurrence than shipping codfish to Newfoundland, and yet we notice a cargo having been sent a few days ago from Halifax, where they command $5 per quintal, to St.
John's, N.F., at which place they are quoted at twenty-six shillings, and scarce even at that.
Fish-brokers are like stock-brokers, and contract for delivery, and sometimes, like their brethren of the Stock Exchange, they are short, and have to cover at any price.MESSRS. SCAMMELL BROS., of St. John, N.B. show a very large list of liabilities, amounting to considerably over half a million of dollars.
They were one of the tail papers to "Jewett's great kite," and when the string broke down they came. Several of the banks are in pretty heavily, the Bank of British North America figuring for $186,000, the Bank of Nova Scotia
