(c) The High Contracting Parties agree that in principle it is desirable that becoments served by any of these methods should, unless the recipient is a bject of the High Contracting Party from whose territory the document to be reved emanates, either be drawn up in the language of the country in which rivice is to be effected or accompanied by a translation into such language. Vertheless, in the absence of any legislation in their respective territories haking translations obligatory in such cases, the High Contracting Parties do to accept any obligation in this respect.

ARTICLE 5

n

11

1-

of

th

1-

d

ce

er

of or

14

of

- (a) In any case where documents have been served in accordance with the Provisions of Article 3, the High Contracting Party, by whose Consular Officer he request for service is addressed, shall pay to the other High Contracting arty any charges and expenses which are payable under the law of the country here the service is effected to the persons employed to effect service, and any harges and expenses incurred in effecting service in a special manner. These harges and expenses shall not exceed such as are usually allowed in the courts that country.
- (b) Repayment of these charges and expenses shall be claimed by the important authority by whom the service has been effected from the Consular whom the request was addressed when sending to him the certificate worked for in Article 3 (g).
- (c) Except as provided above, no fees of any description shall be payable one High Contracting Party to the other in respect of the service of any ocuments.

III.—Taking of Evidence

ARTICLE 6

When a judicial authority in the territory of one of the High Contracting arties requires that evidence should be taken in the territory of the other High ontracting Party, such evidence may be taken in the manner prescribed in the result of the taking of evidence includes the production, identification and taken in the manner prescribed in the taking of evidence includes the production, identification and taken in the manner prescribed in the taking of evidence includes the production, identification and taken in the territory of the High Contracting articles are taken in the territory of the other High Contracting articles are taken in the territory of the other High Contracting articles are taken in the territory of the other High Contracting articles are taken in the territory of the other High Contracting articles are taken in the territory of the other High Contracting articles are taken in the territory of the other High Contracting articles are taken in the manner prescribed in the taken in the taken in the manner prescribed in the taken in taken in the taken in the taken in taken in the taken in taken in taken in the taken in tak

ARTICLE 7

- (a) The judicial authority by whom the evidence is required may, in the cordance with the provisions of its law, address itself by means of "Letters Request" to the competent authority of the country where the evidence is to taken, requesting such authority to take the evidence.
- (b) The "Letter of Request" shall be drawn up in the language of the country here the evidence is to be taken, or be accompanied by a translation in such anguage. Such translation shall be certified as correct by a Consular Officer the High Contracting Party from whose judicial authority the request manates. The "Letters of Request" shall state the nature of the proceedings which the evidence is required, the full names and descriptions of the parties hereto, and the full names, addresses and descriptions of the witnesses. They hall also either be accompanied by a list of interrogatories to be put to the little of the proceedings or witnesses and a translation thereof certified as correct in the manner retofore provided, or shall contain instructions or information as to matters in lation to which evidence is required, or alternatively shall request the competent authority to allow such questions to be asked vivâ voce as the parties or representatives shall desire to ask.