

(Mr. Velayati, Islamic Republic of Iran)

Finally, a chronological table and other specifications about the use of chemical weapons by the Iraqi régime has been provided in the annex */ for the further knowledge of the distinguished representatives.

I have not addressed the remaining agenda items, not because we do not appreciate the significance of every subject, but rather because the problem of the use of chemical weapons which our nation at the very moment is involved with, has compelled me to devote the main part of my intervention to this very important issue.
