

contained in operative paragraph 4 of our resolution will, we believe, be fully implemented.

Finally, I should like to express my delegation's appreciation, as one of the original six co-sponsors of this resolution, for the wide support it has received. We are very pleased to note that there are now co-sponsors and interpret this as a welcome sign of the deep importance which a great many delegations attach to this subject.