

Speaker—Con.Rulings and statements—Con.

Motions to adjourn house under S.O. 31 (As) there will be an early opportunity, without interfering with the regular rules of the house, to discuss the subject matter... the matter cannot be considered now, 346

It purports to deal with a matter which is before the board of transport commissioners, . . . it is sub judice and under our rules could not be debated, 662

Matter, though extremely important, is not one of urgency within the rules of the house, in view of the fact that an early opportunity will be given to members to discuss the question raised, 431

Matter, though extremely important, is not one which comes within the rule of urgency. There will . . . be . . . an opportunity to speak on the main amendment and on the motion for an address in reply, 430

Not in accordance with the rules of the house to put motion at this time because the debate on the speech from the throne is still in progress, 1039-40

Two motions permitted at one sitting, in no way to be taken as a precedent, 429-30

Of a type to be placed on the order paper, permitted as session is drawing to a close, 2059

Should be put more briefly, 1515

Privilege

It is not customary to debate a question of privilege. We do not have a committee of ways and means and a committee of supply, and it is for that reason a certain amount of latitude is allowed, 1302

Matters which should not be brought up as questions of privilege, 1311
