Six Little Cooks; OR, AUNT JANE'S COOKING CLASS.

By Miss E. S. KIRKLAND, author of "A Short History of France" etc., etc. 12mo. Price, $1.00.

"While it is really an interesting narrative in itself, it delightfully teaches girls just how to follow practically its many recipes."—St. Nicholas, New York.

"This book is the result of a happy thought. * * A lucky stroke of genius, because it is a good thing well done. It has the charm of a bright story of real life, and is a useful essay on the art of cooking."—Times, New York.

"It is one of the nicest possible little books for young people. It is filled with capital recipes, strung together in the most charming way, and so simple that almost any child could use them. * * To all ladies who have children, and to many who have none, we commend 'Six Little Cooks' with the greatest confidence."—Living Church, Chicago.

Dora's Housekeeping.

By Miss E. S. KIRKLAND, author of "A Short History of France," etc., etc. 12mo. Price, $1.00.

"It occupies a hitherto untilled field in literature, and girls and their mothers will be equally delighted with it."—The Advance, Chicago.

"We cordially recommend these two little books ('Dora's Housekeeping' and 'Six Little Cooks'), as containing the whole gospel of domestic economy."—The Nation, New York.

"It is intended for girls in their early teens, and so appetizing are the recipes, that they would almost turn an anchorite into a cook. In short, one can't look over the book without getting hungry."—Tribune, New York.

"Wise mothers, of that excellent sort who make the household a well ordered kingdom, will appreciate the worth of such a story, and its fitness for presentation to daughters who are in training, after the good old sensible plan, for the proper performance of the daily duties of life."—Evening Post, New York.
