

e, that the pun-
muted to decap-

de Crèqui, who account of this l, and what was lignation, when,
hour after mid-
count Van Horn
n the Place de
morning, on the e De Mille, and
o execution !'
ride closed this qui, on receiving
arrayed himself
with his cordon
ed six valets to
of his carriages,
forth. In this Place Je Grève,
rinces de Ligne,
le Havr'.

dy dead, and it
had the charity
death-blow,' at e o'clock in the
ry left his post
men, with their utilated remains
qui placed them
them off to his es.

his affair excited
severity was at-
y; by others to
w. The house of Flanders and
rantly outraged:
alked of, and a
nt, that followed with bitterness

ve been written Horn, to whom cated effects of

th of my broth
l Highness has
e kingdom, the
t for the confishink myself as pt any favor at the King may have rendered