

QUIET DAY AT CHICAGO PRICE RANGES NARROW

Wheat Quotations Almost at a Standstill in Absence of Significant News—Corn Lower.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Three-eighths of a cent covered the fluctuations of dull grain markets to-day, closing prices being without material change from yesterday. Provisions were slightly more active, and prices moderately higher. Prostrated telegraph wires curtailed business.

There being no news of importance affecting the wheat market, that pit was left largely to the whims of professional traders, who played boue et noir with it, moving from bull to bear and from bear to bull with great agility, and almost no purpose. Receipts were curtailed by the cold weather and snow, which, incidentally, was reported to provide a sufficient cover for the fall-sown crop. The corn story was that of wheat retold. Handlers of the spot article were un-enthusiastic to get reports regarding overnight gains, and stagnation resulted. Prices were a shade down at the close, but the undertone was firm.

European Markets. The Liverpool market closed unchanged to 1/4 down on wheat, and 1/2 to 1/4 down on corn. Paris wheat closed 3/4 to 1/2 lower.

Broomhall's Cables. Argentina.—There is much difficulty being experienced in making contracts for Plate wheat, and thus sales are hindered, as bottoms are scarce and dear.

Brokers' Wires Down. Owing to the storm across the border, communication with Chicago was interrupted on the grain markets so that quotations on the grain markets were not complete.

ST. LAWRENCE MARKET
