FABER BEAT THE TIGERS.

At Chicago,—Faber held Detroit to three scattered hits, while his teammates bunched their hits off Dubuc and Chicago won a pitchers' battle, 4 to 1. In the sixth inning, Cobb, who had reached third base, was trapped by a sensational play started by Eddie Collins, and was nipped a few feet off third base, following Crawford's single. This play was the feature of the game.

WHITEFIELD ENLISTED IN ST. THOMAS CORPS

Took Great Interest in Elgin County's Quota and Refused to Leave Men.

ST. THOMAS, April 30.—Platoon-Sergt. Robert Whitefield, Southwold, who enlisted in the 1st Battalion, Canadian expeditionary force, at St. Thomas, reported wounded today, makes the sixth man from Eligin Co. to figure in the casualty lists. Whitefield arrived here from England two days after war was declared and he at once enlisted. Sergt. Whitefield on his arrival at Salisbury Plain was appointed platoon sergeant and look a great interest in "the Eigin boys," and later he was offered the appointment of sergeant-major, but would not accept, as it would separate him from "the Elgin boys." Privates John Archibald Penn and William Hail, also mentioned wounded, were both members of the 25th Regiment, St. Thomas, for three years. Pte. Penn was bugler of "C" Company.

VOTES FOR SOLDIERS MIGHT UPSET ELECTION

British Newspaper Thinks Appeal to Courts Might Succeed.

Canadian Associated Press Cable.

LONDON, April 30.—The Toronto correspondent of The Times says again today that there are indications that suggest immediate dissolution of parliament.

As to the proposal of recording Canadians' votes from the battlefield it is highly doubtful whether the votes would be legally sound. Probably it would be an excellent chance of the election being upset by Canadian courts, backed up by the privy council, says The Manchester Guardian.

THREE GALT MEN WOUNDED

Dominion Day Regatta The Complete Program

At an executive meeting of the Dominion Day Regatta Association, held early in the week, it was decided to run the big regatta as usual this year, and make same a morning as well as an afternoon regatta. The canoemen decided to eliminate the double-blade single and double-blade fours from their canoeing program and will have the following events: Single-blade singles, single-blade fours, single-blade tandem, war canoe race for junior crews and also war canoe race for championship senior crews.

The oarsmen will run their complete program, as follows: Junior fours (working boats), junior singles, junior double (140-lb.), fours, senior singles, senior doubles, senior fours and special 140-lb. eight race. All heats will be run in the morning and the finals of the rowing events will be run off in the afternoon. There will be no canoe events on the morning card, and the first canoe event in the afternoon will be the funior war canoe, with crews from Toronto C. C. Baimy Beach, Parkdale and I. A. A. All the canoe events will have record entries, as this will be a good try out for the big C. C. A. annual regatta, which will be held here in August.

The oarsmen look forward to a big entry list, and it is quite probable that there will be entries again this year from Hamilton, St. Catharines and Buffalo oarsmen.

ition, St. Catharines and Buffalo oarsmen.

The executive decided to give silver cups this year for prizes instead of medals. Humber Bay Aquatic Club have disbanded, and their resignation has been accepted by the association. This leaves the four old clubs, Balmy, Toronto, Parkdale and Island A. A. to fight for the laurels this year.

A meeting of the officers and executive committee of the association will be held at the Toronto Rowing Club on Monday at 8 p.m.

Wychwoods play St. Pauls an exhibi-tion game this afternoon at St. Clair av-enue and Bathurat street at 2.30. Wych-wood players please be on hand early.

MEN'S SUITS $8,75

Of Finest Twill Navy Serge in Great Rush Offering Saturday Morning

It's the Biggest Blue Suit Bargain Ever Offered in the Men's Clothing Department and at a Time When It's Almost Impossible to Procure This Kind of Material in the English Market

THE PRICE DOESN'T PAY FOR THE MATERIAL AND WORK. We want to crowd the department at 8.30, so don't miss such a chance. Special arrangements to serve you quickly—cannot promise to fill phone or mail orders. There are just 150 of these suits in the lot, and every suit is of all-wool serge of the very finest botany twill, and about 14-ounce weight. The coats are made in 3-button sack style with the fashionable wide lapels, and have three outside and one inside pocket, and best twilled Italian cloth linings. The trousers are made with five pockets and finished with belt loops. The vest closes with five buttons and has four pockets. The price we are asking for these is absolutely LESS than the cost of the material and work under ordinary conditions, but now it's almost impossible to procure this material-so it's really an extraordinary bargain. Sizes 34 to 44. See Yonge Street window. Saturday morning, rush price . . . $8.75
