Scarboro Park Given Over to Women, Who Will Utilize Every Portion.

HOLD WATER CARNIVAL

Prizes Will Be Given for Best Illuminated Craft Entering Contest.

The Beaches Red Cross Day was organized by the Beaches branch of the Women's Patriotic League to raise funds for their winter's Red Cross work, which is carried on at their headquarters, the Masonic Temple, Balsam avenue.

Since August, 1914, they have raised about $800, and have made large consignments of Red Cross supplies to the front thru the Women's Patriotic League, and the Red Cross Society.

Thru the kindness of the Scarboro Beach Company, all sales from tickets and the proceeds from special shows go to this fund on Red Cross days, Wednesday.

Special Events. Besides the regular attractions of the park, they have arranged for numerous special shows.

Water Carnival. At 9:30 p.m. the Balmy Beach Club will introduce a decided novelty at Scarboro Beach—an illuminated water carnival and procession of boats and canoes.

Sales of patriotic pennants manufactured for this event, of patriotic jewelry specially made for the day, of home-made candy compounded by artists in their own kitchens, and of pictures, and an exhibition of the work of the branch, showing exactly what they have accomplished, will also add to the interest.

Brass and Bugle Bands Lead Eighty-Third on First Route March.

Hundreds of men who wanted to enlist stormed the Toronto Recruiting Depot at the Armories yesterday for the inauguration of a new system of examining, enrolling, attesting and paying recruits. The office was practically open from 9 a.m. until 10 p.m., and during the day the staff of 30 had to be increased to nearly 40 in order to cope with the 500 men who wanted to "join the colors."

Five Doctors Busy. During a morning rush of recruits kept five doctors busy examining them. Lieut.-Col. F. W. Marlow, A.D.M.S., was present part of the day viewing the work of the depot. Lieut.-Col. Elliott, of the artillery, will be in charge of the medical work for the first week.

There is a large room where the men are medically examined in a list arranged that the recruits can be measured, weighed and tested in orderly fashion and also with great speed. Some of the doctors can "put a man thru" the depot examination in less than an hour.

A military order filed at the recruiting depot yesterday stated that the depot was to enlist in the Royal Canadian Dragoons, Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, the Royal Canadian Regiment, "consent" of parent or wife is not necessary.

First Route March. With its brass and bugle bands in the lead, playing stirring marches, the 1100 men of the 83rd Overseas Battalion led their first route march yesterday afternoon. Lieut.-Col. Reginald Pellat was in command. The soldiers at first formed up in the square, in front of the Armories and presented a fine appearance in their new uniforms.
