

CHAPTER VI

CREDIT PROTECTION

SECTION	PAGE
55. Efforts to Secure Protection	296
56. Credit Insurance	297
57. Business Houses Classified by Credit Underwriters	298
58. Arguments in Favor of Credit Insurance	299
59. Weak Points in Credit Insurance	300
60. National Bankruptcy Laws	301
61. Advantages of the Present Law	303
62. Meaning of Recent Amendments	304
63. Future of the Bankruptcy Law	306
64. Credit Men's Associations	307
65. National Associations	308
66. Importance of Credit Men's Associations	311
67. Relation of the Credit Man to the Firm	312
68. An Illustrative Method—The Mail, Index Cards, etc.	313
69. Collection Methods	317
70. Suspended Accounts	318
71. Analysis of Credit Information	319
72. Credit Associations in Canada	325
73. Bankruptcy Procedure in Canada	326
74. Some Evils of Canadian Bankruptcy Laws	329
75. Liquidation in England	332

PART III: TRAFFIC

CHAPTER I

CANADIAN TRANSPORTATION

1. Early Waterways	335
2. Improved Highways	337
3. The Canadian Railway System	338
4. Western and Northwestern Railroads	340
5. Expansion of Canadian Railway System	340
6. Influence of Trunk Lines	341
7. Railway Geography	343
8. Freight Resources	344
9. Distribution of Railway Mileage	346