

WORKS BY THE REV. J. JACKSON WRAY.

PETER PENGELLY;

OR, TRUE AS THE CLOCK.

With Illustrations, 12mo, Cloth, 70c.

The Guardian.

"A well written and excellently illustrated schoolboy story."

The Record.

"A good little gift-book for young people."

The Nonconformist.

"A spirited tale of the life of a boy who was faithful and punctual."

The Christian Age.

"This is peculiarly a boy's book, and very appropriately illustrated."

The Christian.

"A famous book for boys."

The Western Morning News.

"The book is not one which a boy entering his teens will willingly put down if he once takes it in hand."

NESTLETON MAGNA;

A STORY OF YORKSHIRE METHODISM.

12mo, Cloth, $1.00.

The Christian World.

"This book is so full of incident and real excitement, as well as being written in a racy and striking way, that we can easily understand how it has made its mark. Quaint sketches of Yorkshire Methodists, who talk in the true dialect of the county, and are full of religious fervor."

The Wesleyan Methodist Magazine.

"The rustic characters are evidently drawn from life, and with a loving as well as a skilful hand. Adam Olliver is as real, life-like, and well-sustained an individuality as any 'creation' of Dickens, Scott, Shakespeare, or Cervantes."

The Methodist Recorder.

"'Aud Adam Olliver's deliverances' from beginning to end are a meal of wisdom."
