

- TREATY-MAKING POWER, Canadian, Mr. Balfour's attitude, 195.
 Canada's position, 193-6.
 Sir John Macdonald's opposition, 193.
 Sir George Foster's opposition, 193-4.
 Colonial Office opposition, 194.
 Department of External Affairs, 194.
 Sir Wilfrid Laurier's attitude, 194.
 Joint board of Canadians and Americans, 195.
 Reciprocity negotiations, 196.
 Arrangements with U. S., 1909, 230.
- TRENT AFFAIR, 61-2, 83-4.
- TUPPER, SIR CHARLES, Colonies' progress delayed under imperial management, 40.
 Relation to Imperial Federation League, 40.
 Opposed to Canadian contribution to navy, 40, 42.
 Letter to Sir Robert Borden, 1909, 40-2.
 Federation a prelude to independence, 41.
 Dominions are "sister nations", 42.
 Connection with Behring Sea seizures, 229.
 Correspondence with Mr. Bayard, 229.
- TUPPER, SIR HIBBERT, Connection with Behring Sea seizures, 72, 92-5, 98.
 Denunciation of U. S. action with respect to seal fisheries, 111.
- UNITED STATES, Treaty of 1783 denounced by Canning, 114.
See Behring Sea Seizures; War of 1812—Washington Treaty.
- UNITY OF THE EMPIRE, A phraseological inexactitude, 303-4.
- WAR, Canada's obligation to Japan, 3.
 Canada's constitutional position, 4, 196, 202, 230-1, 284.
 Sir Wilfrid Laurier's view, 3, 196, 231.
 Mr. Keith's view, 4, 5, 231.
 Sir Robert Borden's view, 196-7, 231.
 Mr. Doherty's view, 197.
 Imperialistic schemes, Effect of, 284-5.
 Preparation for future, 315-6.
 British war debt paid out of Canadian resources, 349, 350.
See Imperial General Staff.
- WAR OF 1812, Canada's contribution to, 44-46.
 Reason for, 44, 46.
- WARD, SIR JOSEPH, See Council of Empire.
- WAR UNION, Imperialistic proposals for, 277, 293-4.
- WASHINGTON TREATY, Sir John A. Macdonald's opposition and assent, 356-9.
- WATERWAYS, See Treaty-Making Power.
- WEARY TITAN, THE, 13.
- WORSFORD, MR., Opinion on War Conference, 273.