NORTH YORK LIBERAL EXECUTIVE HAVE MET

Names of T. C. Robinette, K.C., and John McCulloch Are Put Forward-Mass Meeting Later.

NEWMARKET, April 9 .- (Special) .-T. C. Robinette, K. C., barrister-at-law, Toronto, for the federal house, and John McCulloc barrister-at-law, Stouffville, for the legislature, were the two selections made by the executive of the North York Liberal Association in private council assembled here on Saturday afternoon. urday afternoon.
The nomination of Mr. Robinette is and to have been practically unanimous, and to have gone thru with a rush, but a number of likely candidates for the Queen's Park were suggested, among others Mayor Pearson and W. C. Widdrield, together with half a dozen Widdifield, together with haif a dozen outside men, but none of them, with the exception of Mr. McCulloch, are said to have been anxious for the responsibilities and emoluments pertaining to the office.

The recommendation of Messrs. Robinette and Mr. McCulloch practically clears the deck for action in North York, and emphasizes the well-known fact that North Yorkers are partial to the followers of Blackstone. On the Conservative side the candidate chosen months ago is J. A. Macdonald Armstrong, a well-known conveyancer of Schomberg Village, in King Township, and educated for the law, and who, at the same time successfully conducts a fine farm, T. H. Lennox, K.C., and now Messrs. Robinette and McCulloch, comcomplete the quartet.

the same time successfully conducts a fine farm, T. H. Lennox, K.C., and now Messrs. Robinette and McCulloch, commonplete the quartet.

Mr. Robinette is too well-known to need any introduction, and Mr. McCulloch has a lucrative law practice in Stouffville. This practically is the first time that a Stouffville man has ever been favorably suggested by the Liberal executive.

It is expected that a convention will be called in the near future, probably as soon as the farmers are thru with their spring seeding, to either ratify or reject the suggestions of the executive, tho there is little likibhood of the latter contingency arising.

At the meeting of North York farmers, largely Conservative, held on Friday in Aurora to discuss the reciprocity bill, Mr. Armstrong, the Liberal-Conservative candidate, is reported to have made the following statement: "I dare Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Fielding to open the riding of North York at once. Let them put their strongest man in the field, be it Mr. Robinette, or a cabinet minister. I, as the candidate of the Liberal-Conservatives, am willing to trust the farmers and the general electors of North York, and have no fear of what the result will be."

Mr. Armstrong's bold challenge, taken in conjunction with the statement of a prominent North York Liberal, made a few days ago in Newmarket, that if Mr. Robinette were accorded the nomination he would at once enter upon a vigorous campaign, covering every part of the riding seems to indicate that stirring times are ahead of the electors of North York. Mr. Robinette has studiously cultivated the riding and on Friday evening addressed a big meeting of the Aylesworth Club at King City.

The fight is on in North York.

YORK COUNTY ESTATE. -

The will of the late Mrs. E. Elvidge of Newmarket has been entered for probate. The estate is valued at $3646. The bulk of the property was left to her husband, who, however, had predeceased her. The will was originally made in 1896, but in 1898 Mrs. Elvidge added a codicil striking out a bequest of $200 to the Presbyterian Church in Newmarket. The following year she added another codicil revoking her second decision and leaving $100 to the church. To her brother, Frank McArthur, she bequeathed an additional $200, to her nephew, Joseph, she gave $200 and to his wife and daughter equal sums.

NEW YORK, April 8.-Chas. Conkling, a New York Central station agent at Croton Lake, north of here, was shot dead to-night by one of three holdup men who entered the station. The robbers fled and presumably swung onto a passing train bound for New York. Detectives met the next train arriving here, but found no trace of them. Conkling was found dead by a son who rushed to the telegraph key in the office and sent a message calling for help. This was received at the train superintendent's office at White Plains, and search for the robbers was begun immediately. So far as is known they obtained no booty.

Pastor Russell's Sermon

LONDON, April 9.-Again Pastor Russell had a most intelligent and attentive audience, amongst whom were many ministers of all denominations. His text was, "The Church of the First-borns whose names are written in heaven" (Hebrews xii., 23).

As last Sunday the question was, 'What is the True Gospel," and we turies has been scattered here and there amongst various denominations, there amongst various denominations, and that not one of these denominations is the true Church. Not one of them can claim to contain all the wheat and none of the tares.

allows each individual to see as many of the finer lines of the same as als spiritual development will permit. On that broad basis of Christian union the early Christians were one and reprobated any division. St. Paul rebuked those who said, I am of Paul; I am of Apollos; I am of Peter. As only Christ died for all of us, He alone must be recognized as our Saviour. As He is the Head of the Church and the only Head, He only must be recognized. As Head, He only must be recognized. As all ye are brethren, so the class dis-tinction as between clergy and laity must be abrogated that we all may be one Church with one faith, one Lord and one baptism and one God and Father over all.

How the divine Church with clashing creeds appears to the Almighty, He tells us, calling us Babylon—which signifies confusion. And who can deny the appropriateness of the name? In times past Catholics have applied this name to the Protestant sects, and the Protestants in turn have applied it to the Church of Rome. But when we come to examine the Scriptures on the subject they seem to include all—the Church of Rome being represented as the Mother Church and the various Protestant Churches as her Daughters. The charge of harlotry which the Lord nakes against Mother and Daughters must be acknowledged altho with some this harlotry has been more open and pronounced than with others.

Besides the regular Wednesday and Saturday matinee a special holique will be given on Good Friday. Spiritual harlotry represents the con-

Others of our Protestant Churches, having no opportunity for affiliation with earthly steamers will clear for the upper lakes governments, have become united to worldly systems, worldly organizations of their own, in which, as a rule, wealth, mammon, sits at the head of the table. "Like mother, like daughters," is an old saying. Instead of charging this whole matter upon others, let us each recognize and take to heart our own share for which to heart our own share, for which we are responsible.

Is it asked, Where has the true church been during all the eighteen centuries since the apostles died? We answer that the scriptures picture her as going into the wilderness condition, out of public view, for twelve hundred and sixty years of this time. As pride, pomp, arrogance and error came into prominence, meekness, gentleness, love, simplicity gradually retired. Thru the long period of the "Dark Ages" no history of the true church was written, just as no such history or record of her can be written to-day.

tions are the true church, therefore e history of none of these gives her history. As her members are scripturally declared to contain not many wise, not many learned, therefore scattered amongst all the various creeds and churches, and some outside creeds and churches, and some outside of them all, the espoused, chaste virgins of the Lord is not a prominent feature in church affairs and is wholly unknown to the world. Indeed these, while in the world, are not of it and usually are disesteemed. As the Master said, "Marvel not if the world hate you. Ye know that it hated Me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world by request, Gounod's "Serenade." Mr. would love its own" (I John iii, 13; John Harold Jarvis will sing an Irish song,

Babylon without it would not be in any sense of the word recognized, and, as soon as the "overcomers" shall have escaped from Babylon, Babylon will come in remembrance before God that He may give her the cup of the wine of His wrath, and suddenly in one hour her fall will occur (Revelation xvi, 19). To the true church the Lord all along intimated that their oneness is as members of Christ, and not in earthly organizations. We do not read, Gather together unto Calvin, Luther, Wesley, Paul Apollos or Peter, but "Gather together My saints unto Me, saith the Lord those that have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice." "They shall be Mine, saith the Lord, in that day when I come to make up My jewels" (Psalm 50, 5; Malachi iii, 17).
