HIS REASON FOR IT.

Bought Shoes Which Were Not Made by Slater—And is Sorry.

The president and manager of the Charles C. Cummings, Limited, proprietors of the Slater Shoe Store, at 117 Yonge-street, makes a strong admission of the value of a trade-mark and what it stands for.

Early in the present season the Slater Shoe factory was over-taxed with orders. They could not fill orders completely, and some of their patrons bought shoes from other makers. Mr. Cummings bought some 4000 pairs of shoes from outside factories, and after several months' experience with them he confesses that his patrons won't have them. They have been buying Slater Shoes—the price-stamped and maker-marked shoe—and they won't buy shoes of unknown makers, or shoes on which the maker declines to stamp his name.

"I won't buy any more of these shoes. I am sorry I bought these, and I am going to have a speedy riddance of them. In other stores they would be offered as price-bargain shoes, and from the price standpoint they undoubtedly are the best genuine bargains offered in Toronto for many a long year," said Mr. Cummings.

An extra staff of shoe clerks is engaged for the occasion. The sale may last for twenty days—for it is Mr. Cummings' intention to effect a complete and ever-attending riddance of every shoe in his store which has no right to the Sign of the Slater—That Seal of Certainty which has made the Slater Shoe the standard of value.

The Slater Shoe Company, with their increased capital, are making finer and better shoes.

The "Riddance Sale," as Mr. Cummings calls it, starts on Wednesday afternoon.

NOT DROWNED. A published rumor to the effect that John McMullen of Edmonton, Alta., had been drowned, was denied in a telegram received yesterday from Mr. McMullen, stating that he is alive and well.

A branch of the Imperial Bank of Canada will be opened at the corner of Bloor-street and Lansdowne-avenue, on Tuesday next.

FOLLOWED HER MOTHER'S EXAMPLE.

AND KEPT DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY IN THE HOUSE. Mrs. W. J. Wilson, Tessier, Sask., tells of her experience in the following words: "I wish to tell you of the good I have found in Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. Last summer my little girl, aged two years, was taken ill with Summer Complaint, and as my mother always kept Dr. Fowler's in the house, when I was a child, I seemed to follow her example, as I always have it also. I at once gave it to my baby as directed and she was at once relieved, and after a couple of doses were taken was completely cured."

DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY imparts a healthy tone to all mucous surfaces, corrects and heals all forms of canker and counteracts all tendency to pain and inflammation, while it gives tone to the exhausted system when weakened by debilitating discharges and fluxes of whatever nature, thus making it the best and safest remedy for Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Colic, Cramps, Pain in the Stomach, Sea Sickness, Cholera Infantum, Cholera Morbus and all Summer Complaints.

S. O. E. CRICKETERS WINNERS AT GRIMSBY

Scored 57 to 35 Runs—Chief Twiss of Dundas Struck With an Ax.

HAMILTON, Aug. 4.—(Special.)—The Sons of England Cricket Club won at Grimsby on Saturday afternoon in an interesting game by 18 to 35 runs. A heavy shower came on just before the game started and left the grounds in a very wet condition, thereby favoring the home team, who won the toss, and decided to bat. The home bowlers were badly handicapped by the wet ball, as were also the fielders, and some very easy catches were missed. The only three batsmen to reach double figures were Farmer for Grimsby, who made 18 by good cricket, the his inning was marred by an easy chance in the first over before he had scored a run, off Stewart's bowling. Harford hit out in splendid style for the Sons for a well-played 18, and Matt Skedden hit up for 11 in short time, using good judgment on a bumpy wicket. Stewart and Riebrock bowled most effectively for the Sons, the former taking 11 wickets for 19, and the 5 for only 15. Fitch for Grimsby took 4 for 24, Whiteley 2 for 12 and Walker 2 for 8. The score in detail follows:—

ENTIRE POLICE FORCE TO GUARD CHILDREN

New York Department Takes Unusual Precautions to Prevent More Outrages. NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The frequency and atrocity of crimes against women and children in New York in the past fortnight have brought about heroic measures.

Acting Police Commissioner O'Keefe issued orders Saturday directing every plain clothes officer on the force to lay aside all other work and devote himself entirely to efforts to bring to justice the perpetrators of these crimes. He ordered that house to house visits be made by all officers on regular beats and that parents be advised to keep their children under closer supervision. He also announced that he would ask the board of estimate and appropriation for an appropriation sufficient to add five hundred officers to the force.

The attacks on children recently have struck terror to the hearts of parents all over the city, and scores of cases of supposed attempts at assault have been reported to the police, which have resulted, except in the fears of parents.
