ALL REMEMBERED RIDGEWAY Veterans and Scholars Right Loyal Did Their Part.

It was Decoration Day in Queen's Park—Monuments of the Heroes
Adorned With Flowers—Patriotic Speeches to Many Thousands of Old and Young.

We visit the graves of our soldiers to-day.
While nature is robed with the beauty of May.
We'll carry of flowers the brightest with
of tender affections the emblems so fair.
These lines are taken from the beautiful focal work carried by the pupils of Loulvestre School yesterday, so appropriate for the decoration ceremony of June 2.

The celebration commenced with the annual dinner of the Veterans of '98 at the Richardson House. The large Union Jack of the association hung over the door of the day. Capt. Mussen, president of the association, occupied the chair, and among those who assisted him were: His Worship Mayor Shaw, Hon. J. M. Gibson, Dr. S. P.
May, Major Harrison, Major F. E. Dixon, the Executive Committee of the St. Catharines Veterans' Association, composed of Hon. President Capt. R. Wynne, President
O'Donnell and Secretary E. J. Parnell, Treasurer J. W. Groves, Rev. George B.
Lloyd, Major Manley, Col. Patterson, 34th Batt., T. R. Whitesides, J. T. Hornbloom, R. E. Champion, Barlow Campbell, Al.
McMurrich, A. S. Jones and Capt. Fahey.
About 100 sat down and old acquaintances were renewed. The only toast proposed was that of "The Queen," which was loyally honored by the singing of the National Anthem.

The Veterans marched to the Armouries.
Simultaneously with the gathering at the Richardson House, the boys of the drill company of the Public Schools, under the command of Major Thompson, assembled at Gerrard and Jarvis-streets. The corps were divided into four sections, in charge of Capt. Leslie, Gillies, Elliott and Curran of the 12th Batt., and headed by the Q. V.
Band, under the direction of the master fife, marched by way of Gerrard, Yonge, King and Somerset-streets, to the Armouries.

At about half-past 2 o'clock the blare of the band caught the ears of citizens and in the vicinity of Yonge and King-streets business men, clerks and all those who could possibly get out rushed to get a look at the parade of these youngsters gazed on the pavement, and Canada's standing army, each with a rose in his buttonhole, and most with a gun at the hip, while the officers stalked on the left, almost as rigid as their own evens. Both sides of the street were packed with eager citizens, and many a complimentary expression was heard as the little soldiers filed past.
The veterans of '98 were in command of Capt. Mussen; the Battalion Column were in charge of Lieut.-Col. Delmeire, and the Ontario Battalion under Major Manley.
The entire parade moved off about 3.30 with Lieut.-Col. Mason and Major Mutton in charge.

First came the carriage bearing four pupils of the school at the Hospital for Sick Children, accompanied by their teachers, emblem, to which was attached an appropriate poem, written by Miss Blanche Hamilton. Then followed the pupils of the Public Schools, carrying the floral emblems, all of which were very beautiful. Following the drill company were the drill corps, the veterans of '98, and the Battalion and Batoche Columns completed the parade.

At the Park.
Admiral by thousands, they marched to the volunteers' monument. Here an equal portion of the floral gifts was handed to the volunteers' monument. The volunteers' monument Oliver Mowat, who placed them on the monument.
