A $3500 DRESSMAKER'S BILL

Has Caused a Scandal Which Involves King Leopold of Belgium. New York, May 11.—A Paris despatch says the latest scandal there and one that says the latest scandal there and one that has set everyone to talking is the refusal on the part of the King of Belgium to pay a certain dressmaker's bill, incurred by his daughter, the Princess Louise, wife of Prince Philip, of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha. Notwithstanding the elopement of the Princess with Lieut. Geza Von Mattachich, she has many champions, who assert that she has been a most badly treated woman, and the declination of the King or her husband to pay her bill in this instance is considered outrageous. The bill in question is for $3500.

There was not a lot of business to be transacted at the May meeting of St. Andrew's Society, which took place in the Queen's Hotel last night. Presiden Cockburn presided, and some routine affairs were disposed of. It was decided that instead of four meetings each year there will hereafter be only three, the August meeting being dispensed with. The society is assured that the call for subscriptions for the Burns' monument in Toronto will be most liberally responded to, and that the monument will be erected before the end of the present century—1900.
