PRINCESS PATS HOLD LAST CHURCH PARADE BEFORE LEAVING CITY

Music by Band Chief Feature At Cronyn Memorial-Headquarters Attends.

With music by the band of the famous regiment as its chief feature, a farewell service for the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry was held at Cronyn Memorial Church Sunday morning. The unit has been attending the church since it was first quartered here. With the possibility of their being moved to Winnipeg in the near future, it was felt that some fitting ceremony should mark the regret of the congregation. gret of the congregation.

The building was crowded to capacity, and it was necessary to turn away many people. The officers, the regiment and the men occupied the greater part of the nave of the church. The members of the band were seated in the gallery of the church where their the gallery of the church, where their selections were heard to excellent advantage. They played the accompaniment for all the hymns sung during the service, as well as the offertory.

lude and postlude. The service was military in character. The hymns were the ones most frequently used by the military forces during the recent war, and were sung with spirit. Appropriate decorations with spirit. Appropriate decorations added greatly to the success of the event. Those used for the recent Thanksgiving service were still in place and were complemented by flags of the Allies and the empire, draped above the chancel and hung in the body of the church

An outstanding feature was the huge laurel wreath placed on the altar by the members of the unit in memory of their comrades who led in the their comrades who fell in the battle month.

The collection was taken up by six officers of the unit, Major H. W. Niven, Major Clark, Capt, Edgar, Capt. Isbesters, Lieut. McIntosh and Liuet. Ward.

Military officers present included the regiment Lieut.-Col.

commander of the regiment, Lieut.-Col. C. R. E. Willets, Brig.-Gen. H. Panet, commander of the military district, and members of the headquarters

Rev. G. Q. Warner, rector of the church, voiced the regret of the con-gregation at the imminent departure of the unit. He was confident that they would faithfully sustain in the days of peace the glorious name which they had won in the days of war, and would be examples to the country of true patriotism and loyalty.

IMMENSE AUDIENCES WELCOME HEAD OF SALVATION ARMY

General Booth Calls For United'World of Truth and Love.

TORONTO, Oct. 31 .- Greeted by immense audiences in Massey Hall here on mense audiences in Massey Hall here on Saturday night and twice today, following a big parade of the army on Saturday afternoon and a formal welcome to the head of the Salvation Army by Mayor T. L. Church on the city hall steps at the conclusion of the parade, General Bramwell Booth has been the recipient of such an enthusiastic and spontaneous welcome to Toronto as few men have experienced.

Throughout the cheers and the applause which greeted the general at every turn, he showed that he was a "man of the people" whose life was devoted to the great organization fighting under the banner of Christ for the betterment of the world. He preached a simple gospel and his addresses were punctuated with volleys of "hallelujahs" that were strongly reminiscent of the early days of the Salvation Army in this city.

"One of the most encouraging facts of my life," he said "is that in every part of the world I find men of infuence all agreeing in the appreciation of the good work of the Salvation Army. They may not all approve of some of the methods of the Salvationists in expending the gospolar am not sure the the methods of the Salvationists in expounding the gospel—I am not sure that I do myself—but in every land they speak well of the work the army is striving to accomplish."

Chief Justice Sir William Mulock presided at the meeting this afternoon. "I venture the opinion," he said, "that whilst recognizing the achievements of the complete of the said of the said. whilst recognizing the achievements of other Christian institutions working in perhaps narrower limits, there is not any human instrument in this world that has accomplished as much for humanity as the Salvation Army."

A vote of thanks for Gen. Booth for his address was moved by Sir Robert Falconer, president of the University of Toronto, and seconded by Attorneyeneral W. E. Raney.

TELLS THEOSOPHISTS OF CHARTIST FAILURE

Fred Daly, Lectures On Sun-Persia Coming.

Fred Daly of this city lectured to a large and appreciative audience in the Theosophical Society rooms last night. He traced in an interesting manner the evolution and final failure of the Chartist Movement, the first workingman's organization, which was inaugurated in 1838, and dissolved in 1858. While the individual dies, said Mr. Daly, organizations live on. Leaders in the church and for the betterment of social conditions would do well to study the past, and thus make the
