Firm cables and strength in cash markets, notwithstanding free receipts, were features in a very Corn-No. 2 yellow, 781/2c to 79c; Canadull session, closing about ic higher for day, with the appearance of an extremely oversold condition. Altho at the moment speculative interest is lacking, and receipts in all probability increased, we are of the opinion that millers will soon be comen by come for cash article as flour. lian, No. 2 yellow, 751/2c to 761/2c, track. Ontario flour-New wheat flour for exare of the opinion that millers will soon be eager buyers for cash article, as flour stocks are abnormally low, both in America and abroad. This condition, with an enormous short interest in futures at big discounts under eash, will leave short position untenable. We continue to favor the long side with conservatism, but at the moment accept moderate profits until market broadens.
