wards' speech a number of times, and he couldn't interpret it in any other way.

Dr. Edwards insisted on a withdrawal. Dr. Neely said he would accept the statement of the member for Frontenac, but he would have to qualify his withdrawal by saying that, if Dr. Edwards hadn't made such a charge, he had used the wrong words and phrases to express his intention. This was not satisfying to Edwards, and some more cross firing occurred, but the speaker in the end ruled that Neely had complied with the rules of the house.

Dr. J. D. Reid, Grenville, supported Mr. Borden's amendment, as something of material service to Canada, and the empire would be gained by it.

Lemieux and Independence. W. H. Smyth, West Algoma, read a newspaper report which stated that Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux had, at a public meeting in Montreal, supported a resolution declaring for Canadian independence.

Mr. Lemieux denied the truth of this, and stated that he had expected to be reminded of an incident at Sohmer Park in 1893, when as a member of the Monument National, he had been asked to take part in a four-cornered academic debate. He had been assigned the role of urging the independence of Canada, and Elgin Myers had advocated annexation with the United States. Another Montreal gentleman, Mr. McQuinn, had pleaded the cause of imperial federation.

J. E. O. Gladu, Yamaska, supported the bill, and advocated the building of Canadian warships in Canada. He reviewed the Foster-Macdonald libel suit and made an attack on Mr. Foster.

Major Beattie, London, said he would have remained silent but for the remarkable statement of M. Y. McLean of South Huron, that Canada owed nothing to Great Britain but good-will and affection. He reminded the house of the great benefits which the imperial authorities had conferred on the Dominion of recent years. He used the word Dominion advisedly, he said, for he hated that word "nation." It smacked of separation.

The adjournment was moved by W. S. Leggie, for Hon. R. R. Emmerson.

May End To-Night. The division on the navy bill is not expected to take place until Thursday night, but there are over a dozen speakers to come yet and the whips are undecided to-night whether it will take place to-morrow night or not.

A Receipt for the Blues. If you wife, poor woman, be out of sorts, And everything seems to sadden her, Keep her supplied in pints and quarts Of that Empress of Waters, radnor.

MOST REMARK- ABLE CURES EVER MADE BY ANY REMEDY

Are Daily Credited to the Wonderful Powers of "Fruit-a-tives."

Bancroft Man Thinks This Fruit Medicine Will Work Miracles.

It is the old chronic case, the stubborn case, the case that will not yield to the ordinary remedies of the physician, that "Fruit-a-tives" never fails to cure. Many of the cures made by "Fruit-a-tives" are the wonder and admiration of the doctors who cannot understand how "Fruit-a-tives" can do what they cannot.

Bancroft, Ont., October 17. "I have been troubled for years with indigestion—have tried every kind of medicine, and found only temporary relief. Then I used 'Fruit-a-tives' and now I am no longer troubled with indigestion. I think it is a splendid remedy."

NO FRENCH LANGUAGE IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Slogan of Grand Master Belcher of the Royal Black Knights in Annual Address to That Body.

ST. CATHARINES, March 8.—(Special.)—Grand Master Lt.-Col. A. E. Belcher of Southampton presided at to-day's session of the Royal Black Knights of Ireland, the attendance, 200, being much larger than was expected. He reviewed the year's work and congratulated Toronto's mayor on his election.

Col. Belcher declared himself emphatically in favor of the naval scheme of R. L. Borden. He also favored the development of the Canadian Defence League. As to the navy, he said: "It seems to me that what we have at stake is worth the price, and we can afford to pay it."

He also declared the British elections had been of great interest, and that his sympathies had been with the Unionists, as the strength of the empire lies in union.

Referring to the recent R. C. planetary council at Quebec, the grand master asked: "What is our united conference of Protestant ministers, developing such missionary schemes? It seems to me that they are hammering away, Sunday after Sunday, to Protestantize us Protestants, or to keep us Protestants. Get a move on, Protestant clergymen, or you are a lagard in the race."

Of the recent French-Canadian congress at Ottawa, he said it was intended to press for French teachers in the separate schools and bilingual normal schools.

"French to the east of us, French to the north of us, French to the south of us, they want to be the conquerors at Ottawa from northern Ontario. Russell, Prescott, Stormont, old Scotch Protestant Gengarray, Kent, Essex and Ottawa. They now send five French-Canadians to the legislature, and claim that they hold the balance of power in 32 constituencies," said the colonel.

"We learn from the press that part of the program at Ottawa was the perpetuation and protection of the French language and more representation of French-Canadians must know well that every privilege—social, religious and political—which they possess and enjoy is in consequence of their British citizenship; and yet we find some French-Canadian leaders, Laurier, Monk, Boursassa, and Paquet, who say they are opposed to Canada's participation in the empire's wars; and who say the whole French opposition will vote against the navy. It betokens an acceptable future. Just now the French have the whip hand. They will become anything but French. Hence, to realize their destiny, Canada must be, according to their way of thinking. But they cannot have their way, because English is the language and must remain so."

"I do not know, in the history of mankind, of a more stupendous and overwhelming fact than the supremacy of the English tongue over the millions of the east. The wheels of civilization's coach don't turn backward. I think one of the greatest weaknesses of Canada is a lack of British Canadianism."

"This is along the line of empire building. The majority should and must rule, and while we will be liberal and generous in politics, religion and education, let us be just as well as generous, plant our foot firm and say, 'Thus far and no farther, and no French language to be taught in public schools.'"

The night session was practically a discussion of a discussion of the platform similar to that recently adopted by the grand lodge of British Columbia. To-night the visiting knights were entertained at a banquet at the Grand Central Hotel by the local chapter.

Capital Lacrosse Club. OTTAWA, March 8.—The Capital Lacrosse Club to-day applied to the city council for the use of Lansdowne Park for games and practices. The matter was referred to the exhibition executive.

Fixing Stanley Cup. OTTAWA, March 8.—Messrs. P. D. Ross and William Foran, trustees, left an order this morning for the first improvement that have ever been made to the Stanley Cup. As soon as the new work on the trophy has been completed it will be shipped to the Wanderers.

Port Erie Ferry and Railway Co. Must Give Canadians a Square Deal.

Unfair discrimination against Canadians with regard to fares was charged against the promoters of the bill to consolidate the Interlaken Ferry Co., the Maple Leaf Amusement Co., and the Niagara Equipment and Concession Co., under the name of the Port Erie Ferry and Railway Co., in the railway committee of the legislature yesterday.

The company asked power to increase its capital to $500,000 and to issue bonds for $300,000. J. A. Ross (Monck) declared that the fare for Canadians going to the American side was 25 cents, while the fare for Americans crossing to Canada was only 20 cents.

President Webber of the company denied the allegation. Two new boats, he stated, would be built if the bill passed, one on each side of the border, and $22,000 would be spent on an amusement park and hotel at Port Erie.

The bill was reported, with an amendment safeguarding the question of discriminatory rates.

The Monarch Railway bill was allowed to go thru, with an amendment permitting the City of Toronto to impose conditions for the conveyance of passengers and freight into the city over other lines. The road will be allowed to come into the city itself.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION DEFEATED

WINNIPEG, March 8.—(Special.)—On a straight-party vote, the resolution of the opposition, declaring in favor of compulsory education, was defeated late to-night in the legislature.

The minister of education declared that he was in favor of the principle, but claimed that if such an act was enforced Catholics would appeal to Ottawa for remedial legislation, and the whole school question would be reopened.
