Evening Gowns for Young Women

The straight line, an adorable simplicity, and satin, seems to be the last word from the French couturiers regarding what this season's evening gown for the young women will be.

Exclusive models, straight from New York designers, and displaying these charming features, are now in our Misses' Department. An inspection of these frocks will convince you of their exquisite and at the same time practical loveliness. The following descriptions allude to a few of the many delightful gowns:

Misses' Satin Gown

It's just yards and yards of lustrous soft satin draped in a most bewitching manner in the favorite tunic effect over a skirt of rich gold lace. But it is the way it is done that gives this frock the entrancingly lovely effect it has. Distinctive features are the jumper with its long knotted sash that falls to the hem and loses itself in a bunch of tiny rosebuds. Also the tiny sleevelets of dull gold net. Colors: bisque, Nile, pink. Price $4.00

A Charming Frock

The very essence of girlish charm lies in this extremely modish barrel-frock of satin lined with tulle. Designed in Empire effect, the lower part of the bodice is of lovely gold lace, while the draped in a most bewitching manner in the favorite feature of the interesting gown is the loose panel of tulle that falls from the back of the girle. It is banded with gold lace and sewn with tiny French flowers. Colors: pink, blue, bisque. Price $2.50

Of Daintiest Simplicity

Youthful simplicity finds expression in this lovely satin frock. The skirt is softly draped and caught to an under-flounce of silk shadow lace of elaborate design. The dainty full bodice of Georgette over tulle is given the modish jumper effect by unique satin streamers falling from the shoulders, and finished with old gold and bead tassels. Colors: bisque, pink, blue. Price $3.00
