

Artillery passing the saluting point in Gore Park during the big military spectacle at Hamilton.

Marching past in Gore Park. One of the striking scenes in Hamilton's military spectacle.

At the corner of James and Main street in Hamilton's big military parade. The 173rd Hamilton Highlanders are seen turn the corner.

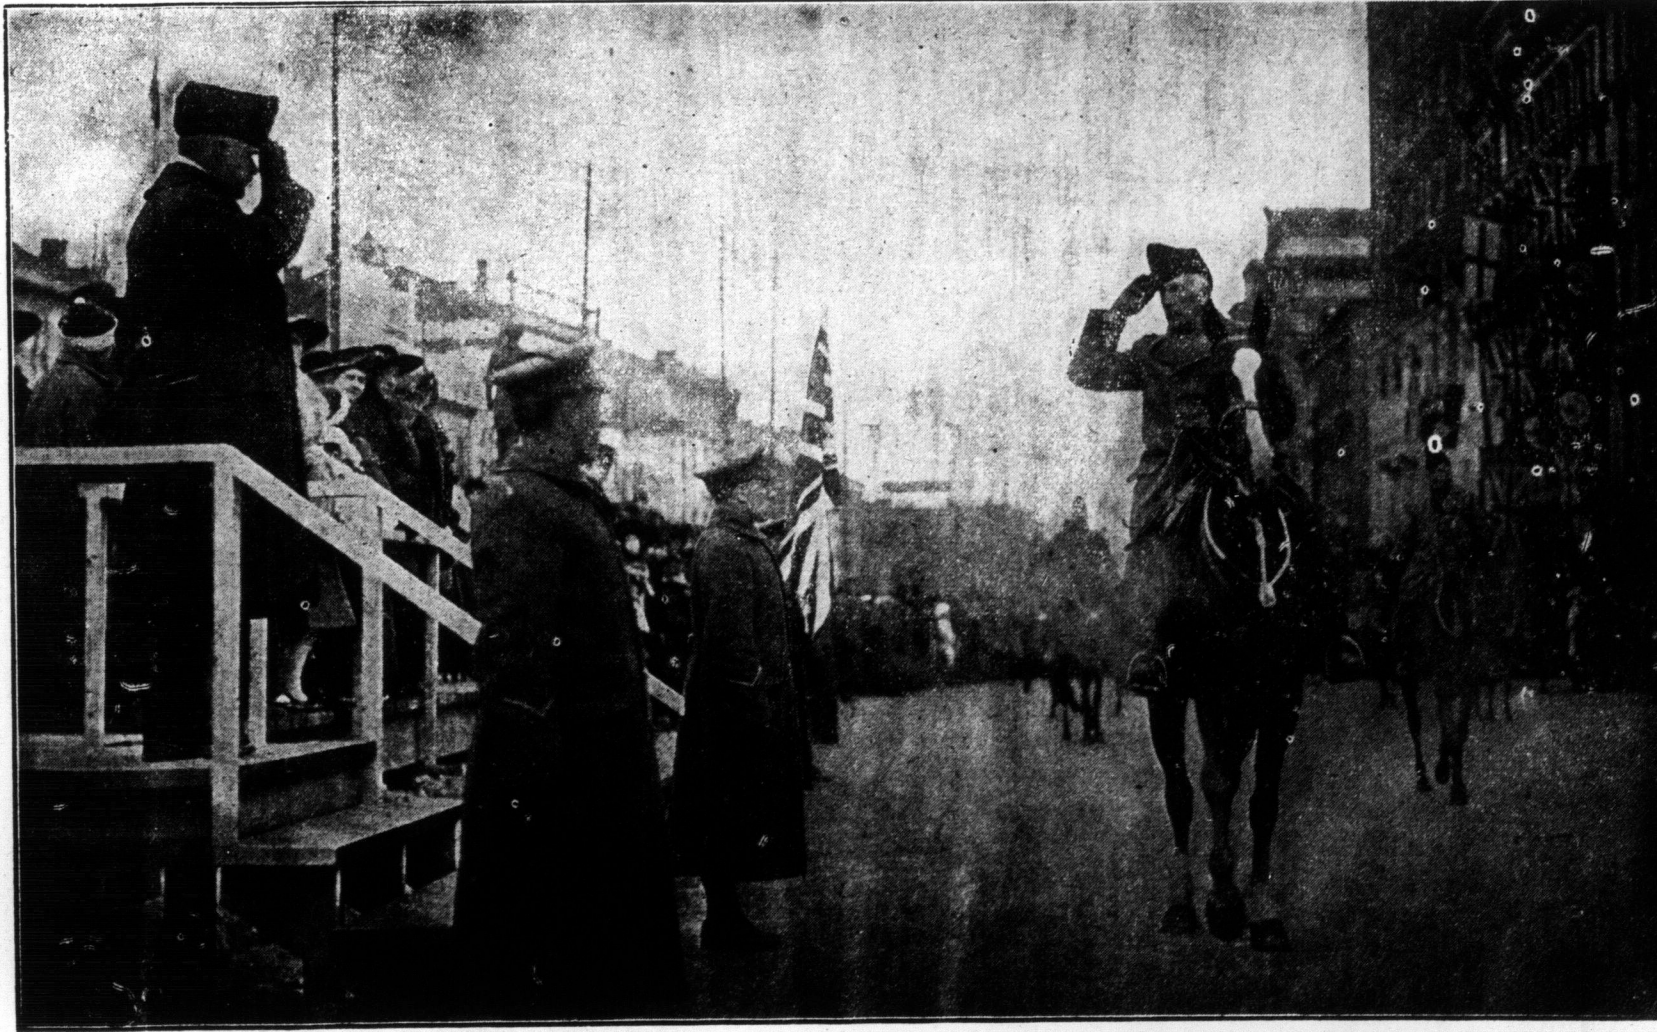

Ready for any emergency. Members of the Hamilton Home Guards in the big military parade.

Have done their bit. Returned men in the Hamilton parade. Those who were unable to walk rode in autos.

Watching the soldiers go by. Children greeting empire's defenders with waving flags during the parade in Hamilton.

Seen at Hamilton's big military parade on March 18th. Officers passing the saluting point. Gen. Logie at the right of the photo.

—Photos by Alex. J. McLean