"Maplewood," the residence of Mr. R. Heward, the Misses McCutcheon, Miss J. Kennedy, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Saturday last, when his winnest, Miss Field, Miss Mabel Croft, the Misses Dixon, the Misses Kerr and hosts of others. was married to Mr. Joel Hallworth, was married to Mr. Joel Hallworth, Jr., of McMaster & Co. The officiating clergyman was Rev. J. A. Turnbull, B.A., clergyman was Rev. J. A. Turnbull, B.A., the woman's Art Association met on Saturday evening last at the residence of LL.B., paster of West Presbyterian Mrs. (Dr.) Elliott, Carlton-street, when the control of the control Church. The bride looked charming and wore a pretty traveling gown. The bridesmaid was Miss Annie Hallworth.

Among those present were: Mrs. Digbridesmaid was Miss Annie Hallworth.

Among those present were: Mrs. Digbridesmaid was Miss Annie Hallworth.

Among those present were: Mrs. Digbridesmaid was Miss Annie Hallworth.

Among those present were: Mrs. Digbridesmaid was best man. Af
Mary Rogers, Miss Elizabeth King, Miss

Mary Rogers, Miss Grace, Miss Kerr, Miss ter the ceremony a dainty dejeuner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Hallworth left during the afternoon for Detroit, where they will spend the honeymoon.

A very smart wedding took place on Tuesday at "Woodlawn," the residence of Mr. George Robinson, London, when his daughter, Miss E. Maude Robinson, was married to Mr. T. Harry Slater, Rev. Dr. Sanderson officiating. The bride wore a magnificent gown of white grosgrain silk, trimmed with heavy silk lace and robes of pearls and silver. The real lace and Brussels net veil was held in place by a superb coronet of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maidenhair ferns. The bridesmaids Miss Margaret Cowan and Miss Jennie Hobbs, were prettily gowned in white silk, with pink and blue trimmings re spectively and carried huge bunches of roses. Miss Floreence Nelles was -maid of honor. Mr. Arthur T. Little was best man. A reception followed the ceremony served in the dining room, and an or-chestra stationed in the reception hall played very sweetly. In an upper chamber were the gifts, which were numerous and exceedingly beautiful. The happy on Tuesday evening. Among those present were: Miss Annie Pasmore, Miss Snook, Miss Jenkins, Miss Hall, Miss Minnie Ross, Miss Mackenzie and Messrs. Bear, Kingston and H. Pasmore.

The Sketch Club in connection with the Woman's Art Association met on Saturday at the residence of Miss Len-nox, 157 Cowan-avenue, Parkdale.

A very enjoyable snoking concert was given by "F" Company, Queen's Own Rifles, on Tuesday evening in the Board of Trade restaurant, which was one of the jolliest affairs of the kind held this season. An excellent musical program was rendered while the guests smoked the pipe of peace and made themselves "at home." Those taking part in the concert were: Messrs. Frank Wright, Thomas Baker, Joe Baker, Oscar Ims-Thomas Baker, Joe Baker, Oscar Imsburn, Charles Bagley, Savage, A. Gorrie, C. M. McPherson, J. T. Robinson, J. Dobie, Philips, F. King, A. Snowden, Major Manley (48th Highlanders), D. R. McKenzie, H. R. Ledyard, Davidson, Bell, Pemberton and Lieut. Wyatt. A card party was formed at the conclusion of the program, those on one side of the room playing progressive euchre, while their vis-a-vis indulged in progressive pedro. The prizes were exceedingly pretty and the games eagerly contested. Refreshments were served and the pleasant affair came to a close at midnight. To the following gentlement the success of the entertainment is ber were the gifts, which were numerous and exceedingly beautiful. The happy young couple left on the night train for a visit to the West Indias, and on their return will take up their residence in Winnipeg.

Michaelle, B., Langerth, B., Bergorth, B., B

Another pretty home wedding took place on Monday at the residence of Mr. Ingraham Taylor, Head-street, Chatham, when Miss Wilhelmina T. Taylor was married to Mr. Thomas Moffatt of London. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Robert Sims of Holy Trinity Church. The bride was beautifully gowned in lustrous white silk, effectively trimmed with point d'esprit lace, the diaphanous tulle being held in place by a wreath of orange flowers. The brideal bouquet was a shower of white roses and maidenhair ferns. The bridesmaids, Miss Taylor of Detroit, Miss Ellis of London and Misses Winnie and Edna Morrison of Hamilton, were all prettily gowned and carried lovely bouquets of roses. Messrs. Fraser, Gray and Fred Ellis of London were groomsmen. After the ceremony a reception was held, when the happy young couple received the congratulations of their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Mojfatt left on the afternoon train for New York, whence they will embark for a trip to South Africa.

A most enjoyable dance was given by Miss Maud Pashley, 440 King-street east, on Tuesday evening. Among those present were: Miss Annie Pasmore, Miss Enlis of London and Mrs. William Riddell, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hickson, on T. Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. George Myer, Mr. and Mrs. William Riddell, Mr. and Mrs.

in the art gallery, where the new land-scape picture which has just arrived from England and which brought forth many expressions of admiration, has been hung. Miss Ford read an interesting paper on Interior Decoration. Mrs. M. E. Dignam, read one on "Holland." Miss Connie Jarvis sang very sweetly and Miss Merritt of St. George-street gave two piano selections, which were charm-

Bodice trimmed with guipure and velvet ngly played. After the musicale tea ingly played. After the musicale tea was daintily served in the morning room, when as delightful afternoon was pleasantly terminated. Among the guests were: Mrs. Dignam, Miss McConnell, Mrs. Alfred Cameron, Miss Denison, Mrs. T. W. Howard, Mrs. C. B. Shreiber of Springfield-on-the-Credit; Mrs. R. McMaster, Mrs. Lillie, Mile. Vanden Broeck of Glencoe; Mrs. A. E. Williamson, Miss Connie Jarvis, Miss Edith Jarvis, Miss Windeat, Miss E. Hemming, Mrs. Ephriam Elliott, Miss Anna Gormley, Miss Lindsay, Mrs. J. Lillie of Rosedale; Miss Lennox, Miss Drummond, Mrs. Salms, Miss Taylor, Miss Ford, Miss Roger, Miss Coneu, Miss Jessie Dalton, Miss Kerr, the Misses Boulton and numerous others.

The program arranged by Herr Klingenfeld for his first orchestral concert, which will be given on Tuesday evening in the Pavilion, is said to be one of the most pleasing ever rendered by local talent. The orchestra selections are by such famous composers as Gounod, Rubenstein, Moskowski, Suppe, Strauss and Mendelssohn. The soloists (who will all be accompanied by orchestra) are: Miss Florence Marshall, pianiste; Miss Ethel Burnham, violinste; Mme. Klingenfeld, mezzo-soprano; Mr. Paul Hahn, 'cellist, and Signor Fabiani, the harp virtuoso. the harp virtuoso.

(Middle row, first figure to the left), blouse effect in soft silk folds over lace collarette. gave a large and very pleasant tea on Wednesday afternoon.

The Yaw concert, which is one of the good things sur le tapis, will be quite a social event, and will be attended by a goodly number of our smartest set.

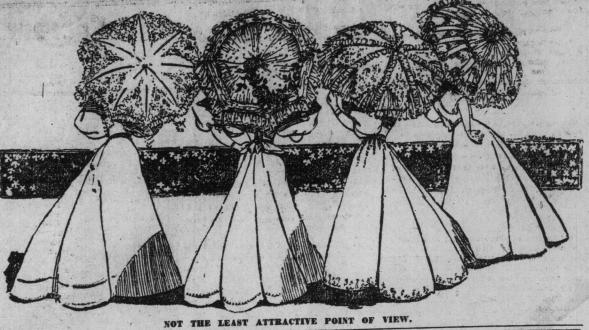

Judge and Mrs. Burton gave a small dinner party on Tuesday evening.

A very charming program of Lenten music was given by the pupils of Loretto Abbey in the Distribution Hall on Thursday afternoon, which was much enjoyed by the smart audience present. The choral class, under the able direction of Mr. E. W. Schuch, gave an beautiful rendition of Pergelesi's "Stabat Mater." The work is a glorious one and Mr. E. W. Schuch, gave an beautiful rendition of Pergelesi's "Stabat Mater." The work is a glorious one and was done justice to by the solists and chorus, and I have noticed a marked improvement even since last year which speaks well for Mr. Schuch's ability as a leader. The delightful blending of the voices and the care and precision with which each number was rendered gave evidence of the excellent training the young ladies had received. Those who took part in the solos and duets were the shoulders. The work was undoubtedly the Miss Ida Hawley, Miss Cora Le Bel, Miss Mary Carery, Miss Lizzie Greatwood. The Miss Kate Beatty, a pupil of the Elocution School, ett.

Mr. Carey, Miss Lizzie Greatwood. The Mann " chorus was undoubtedly the Pilot's Story," by Howells. Miss Myers received some beautiful flowers during the evening.

A grand charity ball will be held at A grand charity ball will be held at Pilot serves to remove any particles.

W. R. Beatty, M.L.A., Mr. A. McLaren, M.L.A., Mr. J. Richardson, M.L.A., Mr. W. Shore, M.L.A., Mr. T. C. Irving, Mr. A. T. Gurd, M.L.A., Mr. J. McNeil, M.L.A., Mr. A. N. Dymond, Mr. W. Beatty, M.L.A., Mr. J. Mutrie, M.L.A., Mr. John Millar, Mr. T. E. Longford, Mr. T. W. Chapple, M.L.A., Mr. W. Edwards, Mr.

A. Wallis, Dr. Gilmour, Hon. T. W. Angelin, Mr. G. A. Kidd, M.L.A., Mr. C. F. Farwell, M.L.A., Mr. W. J. Anderson, Mr. W. Dynes, M.L.A., Mr. W. T. R. Preston, Mr. P. D. McCallum, M.L.A., Mr. E. A. Little, M.L.A., Mr. L. K. Cameron, Major Delamere, Mr. A. W. Fallis, M.L.A., Mr. J. I. Flatt, M.L.A., Mr. D. McNaughton, M.L.A., Mr. C. C. James, Mr. C. A. Brower, M.L.A., Mr. Aubrey White, Mr. W. H. Reid, M.L.A., Dr. Chamberlin, Principal Dickson and Sergeant-at-Arms Glackmeyer.

Miss Edith Myers, one of Mr. Fisher's most talented pupils, gave a very enjoyable recital in the Conservatory Music Hall on Thursday evening. The hall was as usual crowded to the doors and the as usual crowded to the doors and the audience was most appreciative. Miss Myers, who displayed wonderful musical ability, played entirely from memory. In 1892 this clever young planiste won the medal donated by Mr. Fisher for "memory playing." Following are the numbers given by Miss Myers, all of which were exquisitely rendered: Concerto D minor (last movement) Mozart; orchestral accompaniment on second piano, tral accompaniment on second piano, Miss Maud Gordon, A.T.C.R. (a) sonata F. minor (last movement) Dussek; (c) impromptu, B. 12t major, Schubert; Chopin's (a) Stude, op. 25, No. 7; (c) Fantasie pin's (a) Stude, op. 25, No. 7; (c) Fantasie Impromptu; Greig's (a), Papillons; (c) Berceuse; (c) Macdowell's Hexeutanz; Mendelssohm's concerto, D. minor, (Ada-gio Presto Scherzando), with orchestral being quite as enjoyable and successful as the one of last year.

Invitations will be issued shortly for the Argonauts' dance, which will be held in St. George's Hall on Wednesday evening, April 24. The committee are sparing no trouble in making it the bright event it is sure to be, and the attendance will doubtless be quite as large as at the former successful dance given by this popular club. The stewards are: Messrs. Clarence Bogart, A. B. Barker, J. L. Buchan, N. E. Burritt, Alex Crooks, J. Hedley, H. V. T. Jones, A. T. Kirkpatrick, G. H. Muntz, R. G. Muntz, H. R. O'Rielly, L. T. Pinkerton, John Robinson, B. G. Winans, W. H. Bunting, Chairman; Alex Fraser, secretary; and C. C. Smith, assistant secretary. Mrs. Thomas McGaw gave a charming Inncheon for her young girl friends at the Queen's on Monday. It was a very pleasant affair and the floral decorations pleasant affair and the floral decorations were extremely pretty, consisting of quantities of pink and white roses, while at each guest's plate was a dainty bunch of the eyer popular "sweet violets," and it is needless to remark that the thoughtful act was much appreciated by the bright young guests, who voted the affair as being "perfectly lovely" and Mrs. McGaw the kindest of hostesses.

What gives promise of being a bright social event will take place in the Grand slashed Fancy cape of Impromptu; Greig's (a), Papillons; (c) Berceuse; (c) Macdowell's Hexeutanz;

Mendelssohn's concerto, D. minor, (Adagio Presto Scherzando), with orchestral accompaniment on second piano by Mr.
Donald Herald, A.T.C.M. The vocal

The vocal

The vocal

The vocal

The scherzenter, Corporal, Mr. H. B. McGiverin; Peasant Mr. Ernest Martin; Notary, Mr.
D.J. Greentree.

Mr. Henry Sutherland of the Temper
Well, not what he ought, and what the thought—But he didn't. He just went away.

II.

From the slow moving car without fear She got off with her face to the rear.

A WOMAN.

She wore a high hat to the play, And what did the man behind say?

Well, not what he ought, But he didn't. He just went away.

III.

From the slow moving car without fear She got off with her face to the rear.

All who saw her revolve Made a solemn resolve Not to go and do like her this year.

III.

She made a small bet with a man, On a most satisfactory plan,
No matter which way vet, lace edged, fall from the neck.

Mr. Henry Sutherland of the Temper-ance and General Life Assurance Com-pany was tendered a luncheon by a num-ber of gemtlemen on Wednesday.

On a most satisfactory plan, No matter which way It went, he had to pay, And now she has got a new fan. IV.

She never had learned how to cook

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Torrington gave a But she studied receipts from a very enjoyable at home on Saturday evening of which I will give a fuller report next week.

But she studied receipts from a book—Her first lemon pie
Delighted the cye,
But the crust of it cut like a caoutchouc.

Vincent Greene, E. H. Duggan, King, J. Stanton King, Gooderham, Parsons, Gunther, Mara, Misses Arthurs, Elma Arthurs, Brouse, Tiviodall, Dixon, Martin Beatty, Gimson, Lee, N. Hughes, M. Hughes, Marshall, Hendrie of Hamilton, Mackenzie, Drayton, Beardmore, Cattanach Edith Dixon, Haultain, King, Kingsmill, Commander Law, Professor Garnor, Colonel Buchan, Dr. Macdonald, Dr. Crawford Scadding, and Messrs. W. H. Blake, O'Mally, Winter, A. Vankoughnet, Cecil Gibson, G. A. Case, V. Greene, George Beardmore, F. Beardmore, Clive Pringle, Stimson, Johnston Audrey Clive Pringle, Stimson, Johnston Audrey Brouse, Leighton, McCarthy and Burton, Charles Wark was the accompanist.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Stewart of the Arlington gave a large dinner party last Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Stewart's birthday in the parlors of the hotel, which was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers. The table was laden with all the delicacies of the season, and a more sumptuous repast was never given at the Arlington. Music and recitations was in order till quite late in the morning.

Lady Tweedmouth, accompanied by her son, Hon. Dudley Churchill Marjoribanks, arrived in the city on Thursday. Lady Tweedmouth is a sister-in-law of Lady Aberdeen and wife of a prominent member of Lord Rosebery's Cabinet. Lord Tweedmouth is Lord Privy Seal and Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster in the Imperial Government, and before the assumption of the Premiership by Lord Rosebery was chief whip of the Liberal party.

Rosebery was chief whip of the Liberal party.

Miss Gzowski has returned from visiting friends in Montreal.

Hon. Thomas Ballantyne, who is in ill-health, sailed for England on Saturday.

Mrs. Ross Robertson spent a few days in New York recently.

Mr. T. Arnold Haultain has returned from a short visit to Peterboro'.

Sir W. C. Van Horne was in town for a few days during the fore part of the week. week.

week.

Mile. Vanden Broeck, who has been visiting Mrs. Case, has returned home. Mrs. Hall of St. James-ayenue, who has been visiting friends in Little Rock, Arkansas, has returned home.

Miss Gurd of Sarnia is visiting friends in the city.

She never had learned how to cook,

But we love her in spite of all this,
For she sweetens our dull lives with bliss.
She is tender and true,
When troubles pursue,
And our woes vanish all at her kissa.
—Somerville Journal.

Comings and Goings.

The Lord Bishop of Toronto left for England on Wednesday to secure a new provost for Trinity College. The Archdeacon of Yorks will act as commissary during his absence.

Mrs. W. Y. Smith of Guelph is visiting friends in the city.

Cloth costume showing pierced yoke and band on skirt. The sleeve arrangement is novel.

E. Dallas, F.T.C.M., mus. bac., will give a piamoforte recital in the Conservatory of Music Hall, when the following excellent program will be presented: Chopin (a) nocturne (No. 10) (C) Scherzo, C sharp minor. Helmund (vocal) Hungarian Serenade, Miss Eldred Macdonald. Chopin (a) Prelude, Greig, (C) Liebe Dich. Verdi (vocal), Il Balen (Trovatore), Mr. Oscar Wenborne, Jensen (a) Dryade. Saint Saens (C) Mazurka, Mendelssohn (String Quartet) Miss Lena M. Hayes, A.T.C.M., first violin, Miss Lilian Norman, A. T.C. M.; second violin, Miss Ethelind G. Thomas, A. T.C. M.; viola, Signor Guiseppe Dinelli, cello, Rubinstein trio, op 57 Andante, Scherzo and Trio, Allegro Appassionata, Miss Dallas, piano; Miss Lena M. Hayes, A.T.C.M., violin; Signor Dinelli, violincello.

To be appreciated by womankind the

To be appreciated by womankind the following little bit of poetry should be diligently perused to the end of the final verse, wherein the real truth may be found. The preceding five stanzas must be taken with a grain of salt.

the week.

Miss Maud Sharp of Deseronto, who has been spending some time in the city, visiting friends, returned home during Mrs. Kingsmill is visiting friends in Miss Graham of Pickering is visiting friends in the city.

Mr. J. H. Brock, managing director of the Great West Life Assurance Company, Winnipeg, is in town. Mr. Brock purposes spending about a mouth in Ontario, Quebec and the Lower Provinces.

vinces.

Miss De Bar of Smith's Falls has been Miss De Bar of Smith's Falls has been spending some time in the city visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Smith and Miss Smith will leave shortly for Paris.

Rev. Dr. Bliss of Boston is staying with friends in the city.

Major Lessard left for England during the week

Major Lessard lett for England during the week.

Miss Bull of Hamilton who has been spending some time in the city visiting friends has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Christie have returne from their wedding tour.

Mrs. Jeffray of Bloor-street has resturned from a visit to friends in Monte real. real.
Capt. and Mrs. D'Arc MacMahon left last week for Ottawa.
Miss Eleanor Gordon-Forbes, who has been spending the winter in the city, left for her home in Springfield, Mass., on Saturday. Her many friends hope for her return in the near future.
Mrs. Bickford of Gors Vale will receive the first and third Friday of the month.

full of p wore a middle.
when sh ing goin Gown th
axioms,
herself,
cozy fire panded a inspiring a weddi ficious l and qua she play fore I sa made a made a made a made a mother the whol of the od youth, he airing e after flar made her and the loved he The up The up er-quit finitely than her may hav never ps stylish a girls, an concerts brilliant women of pressibly coming has a re where a never ca trudes h yet her is beauti tistic.

rters, the

he wo daughte are quit maids o

in her tractive,

mamma, joke to grannie is infinit with hin

is deligh

you a g We th us that ences be of the t it to our hold. H silk, who matronly full of p

THE

OH CKA

A Fleast -

Accord moir of the name explains Lewes'er was a nounced Siberia slaves u with macious wh
Siberian a divord from he
Mrs. C and blos in the v conserve have gr and her Mansior
M. Die
plored t ed to the tions. tion for the rig public.
The 1 dence, F Mrs. Th bronze: the nev Mrs. Ri has been has don Dr. A pert ba Board

Board
tory. D of 25, w for her and the was gr
Woman
The penetra Mounta
ishing o shows scheme, clubs ca remote Brenior

A Case and the what la while the ped by 1

Secu A met sues, wi tached