CANADIAN NEWS NOTES OF INTEREST

Bishop Stringer Had to Eat His Moccasins—Record Mail From England

Dawson, Dec. 26—After being practically given up by his friends as lost Right Rev. I. O. Stringer, Church of England Bishop of Selkirk returned today from Fort Macpherson, at the mouth of the MacKenzie River.

With Charles F. Johnson, a missionary, he left the fort Sept. 1. During the trip the two men had to walk through fog and storm and bitter cold for twenty-five days. Their scanty food gave out, and just before they found friendly Indians they were compelled to eat their moccasins. Each man lost fifty pounds in weight.

Toronto, Dec. 26—(Special)—William Schram, a wealthy farmer, was found dead in a pond at Waterford Saturday. He had been Christmas shopping, got on the wrong train and was put off and probably fell from the bridge walking back to the station. Two hundred dollars and a gold watch were found on him.

Montreal, Dec. 26—The biggest British mail that has ever been delivered in Canada arrived in Montreal this morning with the old country Christmas mails, which came on the Sardinian.

A special train was chartered to rush the mail to Montreal, and it took twelve cars to hold the sacks of letters and baskets of parcels. All the mail for Toronto and western points was sent forward by the evening train, and should be distributed during Monday.

Toronto, Dec. 26—(Special)—The eleven year old son of John Miller, of Chatham, was accidentally shot and killed by a companion while hunting rabbits Christmas morning.

Montreal, Dec. 26—While preparing for Christmas fetes at an early hour on Saturday morning, Mrs. Francois Boudrieault, a French-Canadian woman, was so badly burned that she died within a few hours.

The woman ran to the back door, and fell down two flights of steps to the snow below where she extinguished the flames by rolling. She, however, was burned from head to foot and died shortly afterwards at Notre Dame Hospital.

The at home of the Y. M. S. of St. Joseph will take place in the society's rooms on Jan. 3. A good programme has been arranged.
