"But ten years ago," said Hiram, "a feller come into the Settlement to sell a bull. He said it was rich a fine fellow, sir. He said 'ad 'cut so much, that no one wanted what he called a sidikit to jine in 'an buy. The shares was fifty dollars, well, sir, he sold fifteen shares, an' took long time notes. A QUESTION OF VERACITY

Fredrickton Mayor and Aldermen at Outs Over an Alleged Criticism of Col. Marsh.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 6--(Special)--Ad. Kelly, chairman of the administration of justice committee of the city council, says that Col. The mayor did not say the magistrate was an old obstructionist, but what he did say was that "if you have a stumbling block of a police magistrate, it is your duty to go ahead and enforce the Scott Act." Mayor McNally denies that he made any reflection on the police magistrate, so it is a question of veracity between his worship and Ad. Kelly. It is rumored here that Lieut.
