Red Cross Society Meets For First Time In New Quarters; Annual Statement Is Given

The first general meeting of the Saint John Red Cross Society in its new room, 28 King street, was held yesterday afternoon and the spacious, well arranged and most convenient quarters called forth many favorable comments. The work of the mothers' helper, Mrs. J. W. Estey, was a new undertaking reported upon for the first time and was spoken of as the greatest good that the society could have planned for.

Mrs. L. F. Longley, president, was in the chair. Mrs. J. Burns, secretary, read the minutes of the last executive meeting, telling of the appointment of convener of committees and of Mrs. J. W. Estey's appointment. Miss Collier being unable to carry on her duties as Junior Red Cross visiting convener at present, Mrs. D. C. Malcolm was appointed her place.

Mrs. E. T. Sturdee being a provincial committee convener, declined appointment as work room convener and Mrs. J. H. Doody and Miss Morrison were appointed joint conveners for this department.

The treasurer, R. F. Wright, reported that the total receipts were $1,983.68 and the balance on hand was $1,761.

Miss H. B. MacKay, superintendent of the V. O. N. reporting as convener for the nourishment committee, said this month one woman had been supplied nourishment for nine days.

Mrs. Longley reported on the work of Mrs. Estey in taking up her duties as mother's helper, caring for housekeeping duties where the mother is ill and giving assistance in better housekeeping.

It was suggested that Red Cross members should visit Mrs. Estey at times when she is spending a number of days at one home.

DISTRICT CONVENERS

As district conveners for obtaining nourishment for homes where there is sickness, the following were named: North End, Mrs. J. D. Maher; South End, Mrs. E. T. Sturdee; centre of the city, Mrs. J. P. Byrne; West End, Mrs. Harold Mayes; East Saint John, Mrs. W. J. Davis.

A plea was made for gifts of cast off clothing and books. It was decided to have the members of the soldiers' wives home nursing class work on a quilt at their special sessions.

Mrs. J. H. Doody appealed for workers for the Children's Aid tag day, Roschday, in December.

Mrs. A. C. D. Wilson, convener of ways and means and Mrs. Malcolm.

Make Your Own Plum Pudding

Half the fun of Christmas is in the kitchen... getting all the good things ready... preparing those delectable home-cooked gifts that your friends can't buy in any store. This year—make your own plum pudding. It's so simple now, with the easy-regulated gas fire to keep the steaming process steady.

Easy Plum Pudding

- | | |
|-----------------------|-------------------------|
| 8 cups bread crumbs | 1 teaspoon mace |
| 1-4 cups flour | 1 cup sugar |
| 1-2 cup sugar | 1 package baking powder |
| 1 teaspoon salt | Candied peel of 1 lemon |
| 1-2 teaspoon soda | 3 apples |
| 1-2 teaspoon allspice | 11-4 cups suet, chopped |
| 1-4 teaspoon cloves | 1 cup dark syrup |
| 8 teaspoons cinnamon | |

Soak crumbs in cold water and press out moist. Sift dry ingredients; add fruit, chopped, and stir well. Add suet, syrup and soaked crumbs and beat thoroughly. Pour onto a buttered square of stout muslin and cover sides and corners of cloth and tie tightly with string. Drop into a strainer suspended close over actively boiling water. Cover and steam three hours.

Women's Auxiliary Meets At Gagetown In Three Branches

GAGETOWN, Nov. 24.—The annual meeting of the Gagetown senior branch of the W. A. was held on Thursday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. H. O. Otty, and was well attended. Rev. W. P. Halse conducted the opening devotion, and the business session was presided over by Mrs. Otty.

Reports given by the various officers showed that the year had been a very successful one. Seventeen meetings had been held. The treasurer's report showed receipts totaling $207.08 and balance on hand of $96.78. The sum of $25 was voted to the Missionary apportionment of the parish and $66.30 sent forward to the Diocesan treasurer for pledges and appeals.

The General Pledge fund was raised to $20 and $5 was voted to the Maritime Home for Women and Girls at Covehead. The E. C. D. fund was $6.95.

Miss Pearl Peters, corresponding secretary, read the board report for November and Miss R. E. Reid read an interesting letter from the branch's Prayer Partner, Miss Mary G. Peters of Hinton, China. The report of the Living Message secretary showed 49 subscribers. Six new members were enrolled and one new life member made during the year.

YEAR'S WORK

Mrs. Otty read a review of the year's work and was tendered a vote of thanks for her efforts throughout the year. Rev. W. P. Halse addressed the members briefly on the importance of Missionary endeavor.

The Little Helpers' report showed children enrolled, making the total number of members in all four times of W. A. work in the parish 134.

Officers for the year were elected as follows: hon. president, Mrs. W. P. Halse; president, Mrs. W. P. Halse; first vice-president, Mrs. W. M. Jenkins; second vice-president, Mrs. Fred W. Develer; secretary, Mrs. Wm. Weston; assistant secretary, Miss Annie L. Graham; E. C. D. treasurer, Mrs. Fred W. Develer; Prayer Partner secretary, Mrs. R. E. Reid; Living Message secretary, Miss L. M. Peters; assistant secretary, Mrs. H. W. S. Allingham; auditors, Mrs. R. E. Reid; delegates to Annual, Mrs. Otty and Mrs. W. M. Jenkins; substitutes, Mrs. E. Halse; Miss A. Dwyer. Following the meeting, refreshments were served by Miss Molly Otty, assisted by Mrs. W. M. Jenkins.

GIRLS' BRANCH

The annual meeting of the Girls' branch of the W. A. was held on Wednesday evening at the home of the diocesan secretary, Miss L. M. Peters. Although the branch has been organized, a layette was made, in competition with the Girls' branches of the other churches, a tea was raised for the rectory repair fund by a tea; a Boston cook book was presented to the rectory kitchen; one quilt was made and sold; and another started, also a knitted afghan. The branch has members and held 22 meetings during the year. Pledges were met in full and $10.80 sent in to the diocesan treasurer. A devotional service was held on Armistice evening in the church, conducted by Rev. W. P. Halse.

Officers elected were: president, Miss Edna M. Cooper; vice-president, Miss Nellie McKinnay; corresponding secretary, Miss George Coghill; recording secretary, Miss Marjorie Belyea; treasurer, Miss Hazel McKinnay; Dorcas secretary, Miss Nellie McKinnay; assistant, Miss Bessie Allen; Living Message secretary, Miss Daisy McKay; Prayer Partner secretary, Miss Bessie Osborne; E. C. treasurer, Miss Beatrice Vigins.

JUNIOR BRANCH

The Junior branch also had their annual meeting last week at the home of their superintendent, Miss Pearl Peters. The Juniors have a membership of 14, and are now having now gone into the Girls' branch. Two members, Nora McKinnay and Beatrice Gilliland, did not miss a meeting during the year. The sum of $8.55 was raised for Dorcas work. Bessie Osborne, superintendent, Miss Pearl Peters, the officers elected were: secretary, Miss Nora McKinnay; treasurer, Miss Beatrice Gilliland; roll call secretary, Miss Cora Cooper.

GIRLS HOLD MEETING

At the meeting held last evening at the home of Miss Janet Fraser, Waterloo street, to complete the drawing up of the basketball schedule to be played under modified boys' rules, Miss Muriel McAllister presided. Those present were Miss G. Jenner, Central Baptist; Miss D. Smith, Saint Jude's; Miss Muriel McAllister, East Saint John; Miss Dorothy Norwood, Trojan-Rovers. The ladies wish to thank J. F. Connolly for his assistance in arranging the schedule.

ON RED CROSS WORK

After a brief stay in the city, Miss S. A. Barrington, organizer of home nursing classes, and Miss Jessie L. Lawson, Junior Red Cross supervisor, are leaving today for another visit to provincial points.

Miss Hughes Is Engaged

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 24.—The engagement is announced of Miss Allen Hughes, daughter of Lady Hughes and the late Sir Sam Hughes, former minister of militia for Canada, and James Freeman Clarke, of Boston. Miss Hughes today admitted that the romance dates back to the time three years ago, when she and Mr. Clarke met while members of the British East Africa hunting expedition. The wedding will take place in the late winter.

Social Notes

The annual tea and sale of the Ladies' Association of the Church of England Institute, of which Mrs. W. I. Nasturtiums, Dandelions Still Bloom

APPARENTLY there has not been even the slightest touch of frost in the vicinity of Beaver Harbor, in Charlotte county, so far this year yesterday The Telegraph-Journal received a box containing four nasturtiums from Mrs. Herbert Wright, of that place, who, in an accompanying letter, states that the blooms were picked in their garden on Nov. 23 by her husband.

Not to be outdone by other parts of the province, Matilda Shephard, of Seal Cove, Grand Manan, sends in a dandelion blossom picked in her garden on Nov. 21, while John McDonald, of Upland, also sends in a dandelion blossom picked on the track at that place on Nov. 23.

Black Ridges, Victoria county, is also in the competition for signs of springtime out of season for the provincial editor yesterday received a sprig of pretty pussy-willows from that place, sent in by Maxine and Basil Grewitt.

Mrs. H. Oelrichs, Society Leader, Is Dead At New York

Mrs. Theresa Alice Fair Oelrichs, widow of Herman Oelrichs, sister of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., and for years, until failing health caused her to retire, one of the leaders of the innermost social circles in Newport and in New York, died on Monday afternoon at her home in Newport, from a complication of diseases, after an illness of several years.

Mrs. Oelrichs was a daughter of James G. Fair, a pioneer Westerner, who, after roughing it on the coast, came to California to join the army. She was married to Herman Oelrichs, who was a very successful business man, and they had three children, Mrs. Oelrichs was a daughter of James G. Fair, a pioneer Westerner, who, after roughing it on the coast, came to California to join the army.

Upon the retirement of the late Mrs. William Astor from the leadership of society, Mrs. Oelrichs, Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish and Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, formed a triumvirate as leaders that continued for nearly twenty years.

THE THREE AND CARDS.

The Tennis Boys held a dance and card party in their rooms on Guilford street, Monday night, when 100 attended. The prizes for the cards were won by Mrs. Cox, first lady, and Mrs. Nice, second lady. The gentlemen's prizes were won by C. D. Price and Thomas McEghan.

IT'S A SIGN.

ALICE—What makes you think Tom is to quit college?

METTY—He's traded his uddle for a pair of garters.—Life.

LAST year I asked my best girl to marry me and she refused. I got evened up by marrying her mother. Then my father married the girl. Now what am I to myself?

When I married the girl's mother, she became my daughter; and when my father married my daughter, she became my mother. Who am I? My mother's mother, which is my wife, must be my grandmother, and I being my grandmother's husband, am my own grandfather!

BELL DEDICATED AT NEWCASTLE CREEK

NEWCASTLE CREEK, Nov. 24.—The bell recently installed in the Baptist church, of Newcastle Creek, was dedicated on Sunday. Mrs. E. B. McMan, vice-president of the B. Y. P. U., presented the bell on behalf of that society, and it was received by the pastor, Rev. A. B. Gibson. The dedication ceremony was conducted by Rev. E. S. Mason, D. D.

Mrs. J. H. Roberts and mother, Mrs. A. B. Northrup, of Olive street, West Side, arrived on the Boston express on Wednesday after an extended visit in Boston and New York.

Mr. Prangnell brings to his work both fine training and wide experience. Rev. J. B. Ganong is at present supplying the Baptist churches of Chipman, N. B., and carrying on the work on that field.

Word has been received announcing the marriage of Rev. Christopher Burnett and Winifred M. Miller at the Jarvis street Baptist church, Toronto, on Monday, November 8.

PERSONAL NOTES OF PROMINENT BAPTISTS IN THE MARITIMES

The last issue of the Maritime Baptist contains the following with reference to denominational work in several fields:

Rev. J. T. Dimock has resigned the pastorate of the Penobscot group of churches and accepted a call to the North River Church in Westmorland County, N. B. Mr. Dimock has already begun work on his new field.

Rev. Charles A. Charter, who has recently arrived in Canada from England, has accepted a call to the Jennings and Lower Cambridge churches in Queens County, N. B., and is at work on that important field. He expects soon to have his wife and family come to the new home.

Another valuable addition to Baptist ranks from the Old Country is Rev. B. M. Prangnell, who has accepted the pastorate of the Cady-Coles Island churches in Queens Co., N. B.

BANQUET ENJOYED

Local employees of the Canadian National Express held a banquet last night in the Clifton House, when there was an informal and helpful discussion of the problems of their departments. P. D. Hunter, the local agent, presided and among the special guests were H. O. Hauch, superintendent of the Moncton branch; H. C. Clayton, who was formerly general agent at Saint John; W. C. Johnson, of Moncton, and H. M. Lingley, of Truro, who are traveling agents. The banquet was a very pleasant social occasion.
