

PRINTED WORD GREAT FACTOR IN THESE TIMES

King's College President Speaks at C. of E. Institute Service

MUCH LITERATURE CAUSE OF ANXIETY

Newspapers Mighty Force in Lives of Men—Advices
Church Action

Roundly denouncing the magazines and periodicals which cater to a degraded and unhealthy appetite, Rev. Dr. A. H. Moore, president of King's College, Halifax, N. S., in delivering the sermon at the anniversary service of the Church of England Institute held in St. Luke's church last night, declared the responsibility rested with the Church to turn the great power of the printed word into a great constructive factor in the service of the living God.

The service was largely attended and among the clergy who assisted in the service were Rev. C. Gordon Lawrence, and Rev. H. A. Cody, who read the lessons; Rev. Canon R. P. McKim, Rev. W. E. Fuller, Rev. C. J. Markham and Ven. Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot, president of the Institute. Other clergymen in the sanctuary were Rev. Canon A. W. Daniel and Rev. F. J. LeRoy.

GIVES THANKS.

Archdeacon Crowfoot having thanked the rector, wardens and vestry of St. Luke's for the privilege of holding the service in the church, spoke of the work of the Institute which he said, was going through a difficult time financially and must make inroads upon its capital. He said he was not appealing for money but for an extension of membership and he thought concerted effort to bring in new members might be made on observance of the fiftieth anniversary to be celebrated next year. He said it was hoped to have a course of religious lectures in connection with the Institute this winter.

DR. MOORE HEARD.

Mr. Moore spoke from the words found in St. John, VIII:32, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free," which he said would be the motto of his address rather than the text of a sermon. The work of the Church of England Institute, he believed, concerned the social intellectual and spiritual life of the people but he believed it was best known by its effort to supply the Anglican people with such literature as would be most helpful in their church life and he had chosen to speak of the power of the printed word. He believed the power of the spoken word was passing and that to a large extent thoughtful people had become readers rather than listeners.

He found that the country today was being flooded with a stream of publications which were bringing influence upon the lives of the people and forming and shaping human lives for weal or woe. He held that the ethical aspects of modern journalism could not be ignored by the Church if she was to discharge her responsibilities.

DEALS WITH NEWSPAPERS.

Dealing first with the newspapers, as a mighty force at work every day in the lives of men, he spoke of the necessity of exercising restraint in recording crime, scandal, immorality and infidelity. He regretted that in the church prayers there was no petition for the guidance of journalists that they might give to the country the wholesome influence of a clean press, but he felt, Canada had reason to be proud of the way in which her leading journals were exemplifying sound principles of journalistic ethics.

Dr. Moore spoke next of magazines and books. He wondered if any one could tell what particular development of modern life was responsible for the type of magazine article or modern novel whose burden was sootiness of one kind or another.

The magazine which depended upon these themes for a sale he felt must first sell itself body and soul to the devil. He declared to be permitting them to wander at will in an atmosphere charged through and through with moral malarial.

"We cannot hope to establish a co-dec expurgatorius for our people," he said, "nor would we for a moment attempt that sort of thing, but we can and we must be filled with anxious solicitude for the character and influence that the printed page is bringing to bear upon the formative life of the young people of the Church."

FAIR IS THRIVING

Continue to Provide Good Entertainment

Good brisk play on the games and general keen interest were among the high notes at the War Veterans' fair at St. Andrew's Rink last evening. The City Cornet Band provided the music for the evening, playing in their usual finished style.

The prize winners included the following: Bean board, ladies, Mrs. McCormick; men's, Mr. McAuley; bowling alley, ladies, Mrs. Gallivan; men's, Mr. McAuley. The door prize, a china tea set, is held for the possessor of ticket No. 6,441. Other prizes are being held for tickets Nos. 14,893 and 14,892.

This evening St. Mary's Band will be in attendance and a choice box of apples will be given as a door prize.

CARE MUST BE EXERCISED

Dr. Moore considered that if the church was to use to the fullest extent the mighty power of the printed word not only must care be exercised as to what the people read and an appeal be made to the management to give a wholesome press, but the Church must do its part in providing what the people needed so sorely.

There the work of the Church of England Institute was to the fore. It helped to supply reading that would uphold the social, moral and spiritual lives of the people.

He declared that the Church of England in Canada had been lamentably slow in recognizing the power of the press and in availing herself of the great help she might have had in a broad and comprehensive church organ.

He closed with a plea for support of Church Institutes, periodicals and teaching institutions, saying: "Let us wrest from the hands of those who are using this power for selfish motives and for greed and gain this mighty agency of modern life, the printed word, and let us turn it into a great constructive factor in the work of the Church and the living God."

The full choir of the church led in the music, and while the offering was taken sang an inspirational anthem. Willard Smith was soloist.

The annual celebration of Holy Communion as part of the Church of England Institute services was held in the morning in Trinity church.

PAINS IN LEFT SIDE AND BACK

Other Troubles Women Often
Have Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lachine, Quebec.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I suffered with pains in my left side and back, and with weakness and other troubles women so often have. I was this way about six months. I saw the Vegetable Compound advertised in the 'Montreal Standard' and I have taken four bottles of it. I was a very sick woman and I feel so much better I would not be without it. I also use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I recommend the medicine to my friends and I am willing for you to use my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. M. W. Ross, 680 Notre Dame Street, Lachine, Quebec.

Doctor Said An Operation
Proved, Alberta.—"Perhaps you will remember sending me one of your books a year ago. I was in a bad condition and would suffer awful pains at times and could not do anything. The doctor said I could not have children unless I went under an operation. I read testimonials of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the papers and a friend recommended me to take it. After taking three bottles I became much better and now have a bonny baby girl four months old. I do my housework and help a little with the chores. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and am willing for you to use this testimonial letter."—Mrs. A. A. Adams, Box 54, Provost, Alberta. C

CIRCLE ENJOYS EVENING.

The members of the On-We-Go sewing circle and their friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Moore in Millidge Avenue on Monday evening for a "poverty party."

The costumes worn were appropriate and amusing. George Vincent, an old Kentucky woman, was considered to have achieved a special triumph in costume. An old fashioned concert was one of the main features of the evening and every one present took part. Roy Saunders gave a clog dance. The musical numbers which were greatly appreciated, included a vocal duet by Mrs. Arthur VanWart and A. Moore; solo, William T. Barker, vocal solo, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brown, and solo, Mrs. Barr. R. Palmer was the accompanist and also sang several solos. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. George Vincent and Mrs. J. T. Moore.
