RECENT WEDDINGS

Dunham-Parker.

The marriage of Roy Gordon Dunham to Miss Elmina B. Parker, was solemnized yesterday afternoon at the Victoria street Baptist parsonage by Rev. G. D. Hudson in the presence of the immediate friends of the bride and groom. The bride was dressed in a blue gown and carried a bouquet of roses. The groom was in a tuxedo. The ceremony was held at 2 o'clock and the couple were married. They have the good wishes of many friends.

Edgett-Lucas.

At 72 Leinster street yesterday afternoon Rev. J. A. MacKinnon united in marriage Captain Charles Warren Edgett, of Moncton, to Mrs. Florence B. Lucas, of Sackville. Mr. Edgett is a well known Moncton merchant and his son is the mayor of that city. The bride formerly resided in Sackville but she has been employed in Moncton during the last few months. She was formerly Miss Florence King, of Nova Scotia. The bride was dressed in a blue traveling suit and she carried a handsome bouquet of roses. The groom's present to the bride was an automobile and a handsome pearl necklace. Mr. and Mrs. Edgett will reside in Moncton.

RECENT DEATHS

Miss Margaret J. Cochran.

The death occurred on Wednesday following a short illness, at the New England Sanatorium, Wakefield, (Mass.), of Miss Margaret J. Cochran, daughter of the late Hamilton Cochran of this city. She was formerly a member of the Exmouth street Methodist church and was active in all church work. She left here several years ago and resided at Wakefield, (Mass.), where she was matron in the Elizabeth Bolt Home. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Thomas White, Charlottetown, (P. E. I.). Mrs. A. D. Hopkins, City Road, is a first cousin and Alexander R. Cochran, Renfrew, who is on the staff of the King street store of Waterbury and Rising, is a nephew.

James F. Connors.

James F. Connors, police magistrate of Chatham, died on Wednesday night at the hotel Dieu after a short illness. He was sixty-five years of age and one of Chatham's most prominent men.

Jerome Loring.

The death of Jerome Loring, aged 67, a retired merchant of Cumberland county, N. S., occurred suddenly on Wednesday at his home in Amherst. Among those surviving is a daughter, Mrs. Walter Hatfield, of Bloomfield, N. B.

WOMAN, ONCE RICH SENTENCED FOR THEFT

Stole for Sick Mother, She Says, But Receives Six-Month Term in Penitentiary.

When Miss Clara Lovett, thirty-eight years old, received in special sessions in New York an indeterminate sentence of from six months to three years in the penitentiary for the theft of more than $1,000 worth of merchandise from Kool & Co.'s West 125th street department store, she told the court that she stole the articles to aid her sick mother. She had been employed in the store for eight years and lived at 2121 Fifth avenue.

Miss May Magan, a probation officer, told Justice Edwards, Herbert and O'Keefe that she had learned that Miss Lovett's father was for many years a prosperous merchant in Hackensack, N. J., and maintained a fine home, carriages and servants for his family. When he died ten years ago, however, his estate was found to have dwindled to a few thousand dollars. She said Miss Lovett then undertook to provide for her mother and herself, and at the time of her arrest Miss Lovett was living in a furnished room while her mother was an invalid in a hospital.

"We cannot allow sentiment to influence us in imposing sentence in this case," said Justice Edwards.

TRUE PLEADS INSANITY.

British Major on Trial for Killing a Woman "Abnormal From Youth."

London, May 5.—The prosecution has rested in the case of Major Ronald True, formerly of the Royal Flying Corps and for some time resident in the United States, who is being tried for the murder of Gertrude Yates, also known as Olive Young. The woman's body was found March 1 in the bathroom of her flat in Kensington.

Sir Henry Curtis Bennett, counsel for the defense, said he would prove that True had been insane for some time past and had been abnormal from early youth. He mentioned two serious airplane accidents that True had, and said medical evidence would show that he was a morphia maniac and a homicidal maniac.

References were made by witnesses to True's visit to America, mentioning San Francisco and Buffalo. The defense brought out testimony that the defendant once proposed the forming of a "murders' club."

True's wife testified that she met her husband in New York in 1917 and that he told her truthfully that he had been in France. True was engaged by the American government as a flying instructor at Mineola, while she, an actress, was on tour. The witness declared the defendant began taking drugs in 1919 and that while they were in West Africa he made a will containing a strange bequest to their child.

FRENCH GIFT FOR LEGION

War Ministry to Present Painting to American Body Saturday.

Paris, May 5.—Presentation of the picture "America," by the French Ministry of War to the American Legion will take place Saturday afternoon. The painting, which was ordered especially by the war ministry from its official painter, Rene-Mel, depicts an American soldier with his right arm around a wounded French poilu, supporting him, while with his left he is warding off the enemy.

The presentation will be made officially by Minister of War Maginot to Colonel Cabot Ward, head of the American Legion in Europe, representing National Commander MacNider.

Marshal Foch will deliver a short speech, to which Ambassador Herriot will reply. The painting will be shipped to the U. S. later.

WHO'S WHO IN CHINESE WAR.

General Chang Tso-Lin, Governor of Manchuria, and a former bandit, was the chief opponent of the recent Administration of President Hu-Shih Chang.

He is very wealthy and has been manoeuvring for what he termed a more representative government in China.

General Sun Yat Sen is the founder of the South China Republic, which he set up.

General Wu Pei-Fu has been in control of the provinces of Hunan and Hubei in Central China, and has been the guardian of the present Administration, although only lukewarm toward the president.

Generals Chang and Sun Yat Sen recently held a conference at Mukden to discuss out China's difficulties. It was agreed that Sun was to be made President of China and Chang Vice-President. Sun went back to Canton, and Chang began sending troops through Mukden, and eventually seized Peking and one of the main railroads leading into the city.

Wu Pei-Fu then demanded that President Hsu immediately force the evacuation of Peking by Chang or he would attack. He charged that Chang was setting up a dictatorship. This demand was refused, and Chang launched an attack upon the forces of Wu Pei-Fu.

Gen. Sun recently announced that, in view of the agreement at the Mukden conference, he would start troops north to join forces with General Chang.
