"KIDDIES" GOOD-BYE
TO J. D. O'CONNELL

Assembly—Hundreds of Children Cheered Their "Fair Prince" to the Echo.

(Sussex Record.)
J. D. O'Connell's departure from Sussex on Monday evening on the first stage of the trip to his home in Canada; Cuba, was marked by a popular demon-stration of a most enthusiastic character. His young friends gathered in great numbers, many hundreds being present to say good-bye and wish God-speed to one they have learned, through his acts of generosity to kindred to them to love and admire. They gave him a great send-off.

The train on which Mr. O'Connell was to take his departure does not reach Sussex until twenty minutes to eight, but the "kiddies" commenced to assemble about 6:40 and at seven several hundred were in evidence.

A large bonfire blazed in the front of the Depot House and the cheering, merry crowd of boys and girls dancing around it made a pretty picture. Mr. O'Connell, just before the arrival of the train, made a brief address in which he thanked the children for their thoughtfulness in coming to the depot to bid him good-bye; he said if he was spared he would be back next year when he hoped to meet them all again.

Mr. O'Connell has given promises this week to take his departure from Sussex on Monday evening on the first stage of the trip to his home in Canada; Cuba, was marked by a popular demon-stration of a most enthusiastic character. His young friends gathered in great numbers, many hundreds being present to say good-bye and wish God-speed to one they have learned, through his acts of generosity to kindred to them to love and admire. They gave him a great send-off.

Mr. O'Connell's next picnic will be held in Bangor, Maine, the latter part of this week.

Monday evening's splendid demonstra-tion must have been very gratifying to the "kiddies" and inasmuch as it showed plainly that his kindness had been appreciated, Mr. O'Connell's coming to Sussex is always an event of much interest. Everybody will be glad to welcome him again next summer.

ELEPHANT MENTAL PYGMY; HAS NO INTELLIGENCE.
The elephant is a mental pygmy, and his reputation for intelligence is mere fiction. His capabilities are dull and all his mental faculties slow and irreso-lute. Almost every detail of the elephant's conduct indicates an intelligence infer-ior to that of monkeys, baboons and cer-nivores.
Native hunters usually use little dogs wearing wooden bells while hunting elephants. The dogs can chase the huge beasts wherever they will without fear of them, and the thinking of the bells advises the hunter as to the beast's location.
A metal bell would alarm and stampede a whole herd of elephants, hence the wooden bell. Hunters trace on elephant until they find the elephant doing, or else surprise him when he passes a certain section, driven by the dog.
Sometimes they pour a lot of broken meat at him from an old flintlock gun or else spear him. A single shot is ore-ly ever fatal, and hunters sometimes
