DEN FURNITURE

The general impression is that it is difficult to find a gift suitable for a man, but we have yet to see the man who would not be delighted with a piece of furniture for his den.

If he smokes, one of our handsome Smoking Stands is a sure thing; and even if he is not a smoker, he will certainly be pleased with an Easy Chair, a Leg Rest, which holds his slippers; a Magazine Stand, or one of the many articles which we can show you if you will call at our store.

BOY ACCIDENTALLY KILLED BY BROTHER AT GARNET SETTLEMENT

While his father and mother were in the city buying Christmas presents, Percy, the ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore, Garnet Settlement, was shot and killed by his little brother soon after noon on Wednesday. The boys were playing "hunter and moose," and Percy was killed when a blank cartridge in a shot gun exploded near his face. His face was terribly mangled and he was killed almost instantly.

The story is a pathetic one. Leaving their children, the oldest only thirteen years of age, and a little girl at home, Mr. and Mrs. Moore drove to town early Wednesday morning to buy gifts for the little ones. The thirteen-year-old daughter was guardian of the house in their absence. About 11 o'clock she left the home and went to the post office, a mile and a half away, to get some mail which was expected and for which the children were anxiously waiting. During her absence Percy and his eight-year-old brother, in playing about the kitchen, entered into a game of "hunter and moose." The younger brother played the part of the hunter and he picked up a heavy shot gun, which was resting with some others in the corner of the room. A blank cartridge was thrust into the gun, and not realizing that Percy had his face against the end of barrel, he pulled the trigger. The concussion tore the boy's teeth from his mouth and terribly mutilated his face. The shrieks of her little brother, who had fired the gun frightened the sister as she returned from the post office. She rushed into the house and was terrified to find Percy lying dead on the floor in a pool of blood. Although she was heart-broken she made her way to the Ben Leonard House and told her story there. It was with difficulty that Mrs. Barber located the parents in the city. Words could not express their feelings on hearing the terrible news. They immediately returned home, arriving in the early evening. From the Ben Leonard House, Dr. Roberts was telephoned to. On hearing the details he gave permission for burial. It is not probable that an inquest will be held.

Altogether, there are about 115 vessels concerned, including liners on the Atlantic and Pacific, boats engaged on the Great Lakes and the Pacific coast, barges, car-transfers and tugs. With a view of meeting the owners, underwriters agreed to make a concession this year by which the aggregate values were reduced by 3 1/2 per cent. The company took the benefit of the concession for steamers employed in the Atlantic trade. The values of the Empress of Britain and Empress of Ireland have been reduced by £30,000 each, bringing the new values down to £250,000 each, and there is a reduction of 10,000

Daily Hints For the Cook

Split Pea Soup.
Half cup split peas, 1 1/2 quarts water, 1 tablespoon chopped onion, 1 heaping tablespoon butter, 1 tablespoon flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, pinch pepper, 1 1/2 cups milk. Wash peas and soak over night in one pint cold water. In the morning drain and rinse thoroughly, add 1 1/2 quarts cold water and the onion. Cook slowly until soft, rub through strainer. Make a white sauce, add this liquid to it and cook until it is of proper consistency. Cooking a small ham bone with the peas improves the flavor.

Crumb Cake
One and one-half cups sugar, half cup butter, two cups pastry flour (just as taken from the bag), two teaspoons baking powder, two even teaspoons of cream of tartar and one even of soda. Rub these together until dry and crumblike. Take out half cup of this and set aside. To the remainder add two eggs, 3/4 cup sweet milk, one teaspoon vanilla or lemon. Put into tin and over the top sprinkle half cup of crumbs. Bake moderately forty or forty-five minutes.
