SHOWS HIS FAITH IN THIS CITY Mr. Homfray of England Gives Times Optimistic Interview

HAS BOUGHT HEAVILY Sum of $200,000 Represented in His Transactions in St. John Property - Will Bring Recent Capital Here in May-Recent Purchases

The situation in St. John is now at least twenty-five per cent and probably fifty per cent better than I thought it could be by this time, Mr. Homfray said.

Mr. Homfray arrived in St. John early last spring, soon after the announcement of the Courtenay case, when the attention of all Canada was drawn to this city.

Mr. Homfray looks forward to interesting developments in the real estate market when the pressure of increasing business forces the business district to expand and to spread into what is now residential or lower grade business districts.

Mr. Homfray has expressed these views on the whole city and the surrounding district with reference to the city proper, East St. John, West St. John, Lancaster, and the Manuogosh district, as well as some farm property outside the city.

In making his investments here Mr. Homfray has spread them over the whole city and the surrounding district with reference to the city proper, East St. John, West St. John, Lancaster, and the Manuogosh district, as well as some farm property outside the city.
