IMPERIAL THEATRE TODAY PRESENTS

Cynthia Stockley's British Story Based Upon a Chain of Society Happenings in the Great Career of Cecil Rhodes the Diamond King

"PINK GODS AND BLUE DEMONS"

Featuring the Eminent Screen Stars Bebe Daniels, James Kirkwood, Anna Q. Nilsson and Raymond Hatton

THIS IS AN ANGLO-SOUTH AFRICAN DRAMA of exclusive type, breathing the air of high political and wealthy circles. Cynthia Stockley has evidently presumed to build her powerful story upon the Cecil Rhodes romance of fabulous riches in diamond mining, introducing charming women, distinguished British military officers, unscrupulous diamond thieves—black and white —and Penryn Stanlaw, English director, gives the action a setting of the elaborate and faithful quality.

Whom the Players Portray:

Loraine Temple—Wife of British military officer, born with an insatiable passion for diamonds—to her great peril—

—BEBE DANIELS

John Queech—Diamond King of South Africa, almost cruel as a master but a thorough gentleman. Undertakes to cure Mrs. Temple for her passion—

—JAMES KIRKWOOD,

Lady Margot Cork—Sweet-mannered widow who infatuates John Queech but repels him for his supposed cruelty—then

—ANNA Q. NILSSON

Jim Wingate—Mine superintendent who himself is caught stealing diamonds and undergoes the surgical recovery of gems

—RAYMOND HATTON

Will Meet Carpenter.

Paris, Dec. 9.—Battling Sikl has accepted the challenge for a return match with Georges Carpentier, conditionupon his relinquent by the French boxing federation. He says he is willing to fight for "glory only" this waving all the money demands for which he has hitherto held out. In sporting circles, however, it is generally conceded that the fight cannot possibly take place until the boxing federation has completed its investigation of Sikl's charges that he had to agree to a "frame-up" in order to get Carpentier into the ring the first time.
