King Albert Enters His Capital at Head of Allied Troops

Climax To Belgium's Part In Great War Drama Tremendous Ovation for Royal Party From Loyal Citizens Who Had Suffered Four Years Under Rule of Invaders

Brussels, Friday, Nov. 22—King Albert entered Brussels this morning at 8.30 o'clock. He was accompanied by Queen Elizabeth, Princess Leopold and Charles and Princess Marie José.

The royal party entered at the Porte de Flanders and proceeded to the Place de La Nation, receiving a tremendous ovation along the streets. Entering the parliament house, King Albert and his family listened to an address of welcome.

Flowers were thrown in the path of King Albert as the procession made its way along boulevards lined for miles with dense throngs. As this despatch is being written the noise of cheering rolls continuously like thunder across the city.

The return of King Albert to his capital recalls the king's prophecy in an interview with the Associated Press only a few months after the Germans, having checked the first rush of the Belgians, had been driven from their country.

Paris, Nov. 22—Progress by the French army of occupation in Alsace and Lorraine was reported in the official statement issued by the war office tonight. The statement reads:

Human Beings Never In Such a Bad State Pitiable Conditions Among British Prisoners of War

Released by Huns, Without Food or Money, They Started on Fifty Mile Walk to Freedom—Many Died by the Roadside—Brutality Continued Until the Last

London, Nov. 23—Pitiable conditions among British prisoners of war who have been liberated by the Germans since the signing of the armistice, are described by Reuter's correspondent at French headquarters.

"I have never seen human beings in such a state of raggedness, hunger and misery. When the camp at Forbach, thirty-eight miles east of Metz, as well as those elsewhere, were broken up, the prisoners, some of whom were captured during the March offensive, were told to clear out and seek help from their Allies.

"They left the prison camps in droves of hundreds in charge of German officers and soldiers who had deserted. The weather was very cold and many died by the roadside within a few miles from friends.
